FOOTBALL AND YANKEE STADIUM

Yankee Stadium will play host to the inaugural New Era Pinstripe Bowl on Dec. 30, 2010, featuring Syracuse from the Big East and K-State from the Big 12.

Yankee Stadium, the venerable "House that Ruth Built" that stood for 85 years, has been the host to some of the most memorable collegiate and professional football games in gridiron history, adding to the rich history of the Stadium. Since Oct. 20, 1923, there have been 10 historic moments that are still discussed and reminisced about to this day - courtesy of pinstripebowl.com

1. The Greatest Game Ever Played

The NFL Championship Game on Dec. 28, 1958, between the New York Giants and Baltimore Colts was the first NFL game to go into sudden death overtime. The Colts won, 23-17, in what is widely-regarded as "The Greatest Game Ever Played."

2. Winning one for the Gipper

George "The Gipper" Gipp was a first-team All-American at Notre Dame before dying at the age of 25 of streptococcal throat infection just days after leading Notre Dame to a win over Northwestern. While on his hospital bed he received a visit from coach Knute Rockne before a Nov. 10, 1928, showdown against Army. At halftime of a scoreless game, Rockne urged his squad to win it for Gipp, inspiring the Irish to a 12-6 win at Yankee Stadium.

3. The Tackle

Second-ranked Notre Dame and top-ranked Army played perhaps the most thrilling contest of their historic rivalry on November 9, 1946 at Yankee Stadium, a 0-0 tie made legendary by John Lujack's well-chronicled saving tackle of Cadet star running back Doc Blanchard late in the game.

4. The Kick

Pat Summerall's 49-yard field goal in a swirling snowstorm on December 14, 1958 gave the Giants a 13-10 win over the Cleveland Browns to force a playoff for the NFL East crown. Summerall atoned for a missed 31-yard attempt with 4 minutes remaining. The following week, New York defeated Cleveland, 10-0, to advance to the 1958 NFL Championship Game

5. On Ice

The Giants romped over the Chicago Bears, 47-7, on December 30, 1956 to win the NFL championship and cap their first season at Yankee Stadium. The game is famous for being played on an icy field in which the Giants wore sneakers instead of cleats, shades of 22 years earlier when the Giants also wore sneakers to play on an icy Polo Grounds in what became known as "The Sneakers Game."

6. Seventh Heaven

In 1961 the Giants acquired quarterback Y.A. Tittle from the 49ers for guard Lou Cordileone. Tittle went on to lead the Giants to three straight Eastern Division titles. En route, he threw seven touchdown passes to lead the Giants to a 49-34 win over the Redskins on Oct. 28.

7. Lombardi's low point

One member of the famed Seven Blocks of Granite was future Hall of Fame coach Vince Lombardi, who later in the 1936 season endured what he called "the most devastating loss of my life." Needing one win for a Rose Bowl berth, the Rams fell to NYU, 7-6, on a muddy Yankee Stadium field on Thanksgiving Day.

8. Kramer's Kicks

Guard Jerry Kramer's three field goals led the Packers to a 16-7 win over the Giants in what proved to be Yankee Stadium's final NFL Championship Game on December 30, 1962. A crowd of 64,892 attended a game played in 13 degree temperatures with 40 miles per hour winds.

9. Gotham's Swan Song

Nebraska defeated Miami, 36-34, on December 15, 1962 behind MVP George Mira's 321 passing yards and two touchdowns. Only 6,166 attended Yankee Stadium to brave the bitter 14-degree temperature in what was the final Gotham Bowl ever played.

10. The Final Game

The final Whitney M. Young Urban League classic on September 12, 1987 was also the last football game ever played at the old Yankee Stadium. Central State University of Ohio defeated Grambling, 37-21. Afterwards, Grambling coach Eddie Robinson said, "They just came to play. We didn't."

THE HOUSE THAT RUTH BUILT WELCOMES CATS/ORANGE

NEW ERA PINSTRIPE BOWL PREVIEW

Familiar postseason opponents and two programs on the rise highlight the storylines in the 2010 New Era Pinstripe Bowl. Gearing up to meet for the third time in the postseason in the last 13 years, both Kansas State and Syracuse will be ending a multi-year bowl drought as the Wildcats will be playing in their first bowl since 2006, while the Orange ended a six-year bowl absence.

The Pinstripe Bowl marks the Wildcats 14th bowl game in school history as the Cats have not played an opponent more than once outside of Syracuse in the postseason. K-State used a 35-18 Fiesta Bowl win in 1997 to propel the Wildcats to a No. 1 ranking in 1998, but the Orange came back and evened the score in the 2001 Insight.com Bowl by sending K-State to a 6-6 year with a 26-3 defeat.

Kansas State head coach Bill Snyder will lead the Wildcats into a bowl game for the 12th time in his career after the legendary head coach took the program to 11-straight bowl games from the 1993-2003 seasons. After narrowly missing postseason play in the first season of his second stint a year ago, Snyder has quickly led K-State back into the bowl picture in 2010.

A similar transformation has taken place at Syracuse. Following a 6-6 season and an appearance in the Champ Sports Bowl in 2004, the Orange could only muster a 10-37 record over the next four years, which including four-straight eighth-place finishes in the Big East. Doug Marrone, a Syracuse alum, entered the picture in 2009, going 4-8 in his first season before leading the Orange to a 7-5 mark this year and a fourth-place finish in the conference.

The similarities of two programs on the rise, coupled with an already established bowl history between the schools should make the inaugural New Era Pinstripe Bowl one of the better matchups this bowl season.

A LOOK AT THE WILDCATS

Playing in its first bowl in four years, Kansas State will look to end the season on a two-game winning streak, while the Wildcats look to avenge a bowl loss to Syracuse in the 2001 Insight.com Bowl. The Wildcats are also looking for their first postseason victory since 2002, a win over Arizona State in the Holiday Bowl.

K-State is bowling for the first time in four years, thanks in large part to a power-running offense that ranks 20th in the nation. The Wildcats ended the regular season averaging 206.0 yards on the ground, 124.6 of which has come from All-American Daniel Thomas, who enters the bowl season ninth in the nation in rushing. The Hilliard, Fla., native will finish second on the school's single-season rushing chart and could finish his career second all-time at K-State with a good performance against the Orange.

Thomas wouldn't have been able to put up the numbers he has this season without the help of fullback Braden Wilson and a senior-laden offensive line. Led by All-Big 12 selections in center Wade Weibert and guard Zach Kendall, as well as senior guard Kenny Mayfield, the Wildcat offensive line has a combined 94 career starts among them.

Kansas State leaned on Carson Coffman as its starting quarterback for the first part of the season as he has been one of the most efficient passers in school history, ranking fifth in single-season passing efficiency heading into the Pinstripe Bowl. Backup quarterback Collin Klein burst onto the scene against Texas, starting his first career game as he rushed for 127 yards and two touchdowns to lead K-State to bowl-eligibility. K-State used both quarterbacks in each of the final three regular season games.

The wide receiver corps has been hit hard by injuries as sophomore Brodrick Smith and redshirt freshman Tramaine Thompson each went down halfway through the season. Senior Aubrey Quarles has been Coffman and Klein's favorite target down the stretch run of the season as the Aurora, Colo., product combined for 29 receptions and 441 yards and three scores in the final six games.

Kansas State's defense has been led by the secondary, which combined for eight interceptions over the past six games, including five in a blow-out win against Texas. Stephen Harrison and Terrance Sweeney have combined for 24 passes defended, including 13 from Harrison to rank 10th in the nation.

The Wildcats most consistent defenders this season have been David Garrett and Ty Zimmerman. Garret, an honorable mention All-Big 12 selection, leads the team with 86 tackles, including 13.0 for loss to sit fifth in the conference. Zimmerman, the first true freshman in school history to earn all-conference honors, was second in the Big 12 among freshmen with 69 stops, while he tallied three interceptions in the last four games, including two against Texas and one at North Texas on the final play of the regular season.

A LOOK AT THE ORANGE

Syracuse has used a stout defense to get back into the bowl picture for the first time in six years and for the first time under second-year head coach Doug Marrone. Of Syracuse's seven wins this season, the Orange offense produced less than 20 points three times, while the SU defense has limited opponents to less than 20 points on eight occasions this year, including in each of its seven victories.

The Orange rank no worse than 13th nationally in four defensive categories as they are fifth in total defense (295.0 yards per game), sixth in pass defense (157.58), 12th in pass efficiency defense (108.97) and 13th in scoring defense (18.08 points per game).

The Syracuse defense is led by linebacker Derrell Smith's 103 tackles, including eight for loss, three forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. Fellow linebacker Doug Hogue, who is second on the team with 89 stops, leads the team with 9.5 tackles for loss, while defensive lineman Chandler Jones is tops on the team with four sacks.

Syracuse has averaged 308.2 yards of offense per game, including 178.0 through the air. Quarterback Ryan Nassib is 189-of-337 for 2,095 yards and 16 touchdowns. His favorite receiver this season has been Van Chew, who has 41 receptions for 661 and five scores, while Alec Lemon has 30 grabs for 377 yards and four scores.

Delone Carter and Antwon Bailey have been the one-two punch in the Syracuse backfield, combining for 1,539 yards and nine touchdowns on 311 carries.

WILDCATS HEADED TO NEW ERA PINSTRIPE BOWL

After spending the holidays in Manhattan following each of the last three seasons, Kansas State received its 14th bowl berth all-time and 12th under head coach Bill Snyder when the Wildcats were selected to meet Syracuse in the inaugural New Era Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium.

The Wildcats wrapped up the regular season with a 7-5 overall record (3-5 Big 12) and finished third in the Big 12 North Division. Kansas State, which will face Syracuse in a bowl for the third time in school history, jumped out to a 5-1 start to the 2010 season, before hitting a rough patch that saw the Wildcats drop 4-of-5, including three against ranked opponents. K-State, which had four sellout crowds at Bill Snyder Family Stadium this season, opened the campaign with a win over UCLA on national television and later knocked off UCF, which would go on to win Conference USA, 17-13 before yet another capacity home crowd.

After a dominating 59-7 win over rival Kansas, the Cats dropped two games to ranked opponents before becoming bowl-eligible with a convincing win over Texas, 39-14, in the home finale. A road win at North Texas capped the year and propelled the Wildcats to New York and a Pinstripe Bowl berth.

BOWLING WITH THE WILDCATS

K-State has made 13 total bowl appearances all-time, with 11 of those coming in the last 17 seasons, prior to 2010. The Wildcats are 6-7 all-time in postseason bowl games, 6-5 under Snyder, and will be playing in their 10th different bowl when they take the field at Yankee Stadium. All told, K-State has traveled to bowl games in six different states, with Arizona (2-Fiesta, 2-Copper/Insight) and Texas (2-Cotton, 1-Alamo, 1-Texas) being the most frequent destinations.

K-STATE IN NEW YORK

Kansas State, which boasts no players from New York, has played in the state just two times in the program's history and will make its first-ever bowl appearance in the state at the Pinstripe Bowl. The Wildcats' first appearance in the state, which currently features over 3,000 K-State alumni, was back in 1934 when Hall of Famer Pappy Waldorf's Big 6 Champion squad tied Manhattan College, 13-13. K-State then dropped a 21-6 contest to Army to open the 1966 season in its only other game in the state.

KANSAS STATE BOWL HISTORY

The 2010 New Era Pinstripe Bowl marks Kansas State's 14th postseason bowl apperaance and its 13th under legendary head coach Bill Snyder. Below is the Wildcats' all-time list of bowl appearances.

1982	Independence Bowl	Wisconsin 14, K-State 3
1993	Copper Bowl	K-State 52, Wyoming 17
1994	Aloha Bowl	Boston College 12, K-State 7
1995	Holiday Bowl	K-State 54, Colorado State 21
1997	Cotton Bowl	BYU 19, K-State 15
1997	Fiesta Bowl	K-State 35, Syracuse 18

2001	Cotton Bowl	K-State 35, Tennessee 21
2001	Insight.com Bowl	Syracuse 26, K-State 3
2002	Holiday Bowl	K-State 34, Arizona State 27
2004	Fiesta Bowl	Ohio State 35, K-State 28
2006	Texas Bowl	Rutgers 37, K-State 10

CATS AND ORANGE

Kansas State will face Syracuse for the third time on December 30 with all three meetings coming in the bowl season. The Cats knocked off the Orange, 35-18, in the 1997 Fiesta Bowl in a battle of two nationally-ranked teams before dropping a 26-3 decision in the 2001 Insight.com Bowl.

K-STATE AND THE BIG EAST

After playing just three current members of the Big East Conference prior to 2006 – including Cincinnati, which was a member of Conference USA when the Wildcats last faced the Bearcats in 1996 – Kansas State will be taking on its second Big East member of the season when the Wildcats meet No. 16 Rutgers for the first time in the Texas Bowl. All time, K-State is 4-7 against current Big East teams. The Cats have faced three Big east teams previously in bowl games. Kansas State defeated Syracuse, 35-18, in the 1997 Fiesta Bowl and lost to the Orange, 26-3, in the 2001 Insight.com Bowl, before dropping a 37-10 decision to Rutgers in the 2006 Texas Bowl.

RIDING THE PURPLE WAVE

With Kansas State fans purchasing all of the school's ticket allotment, and then some, for the Pinstripe Bowl, the purple faithful continues to be one of the nation's top traveling group of supporters. In 2003, an estimated 37,000 Wildcat fans swarmed to Tempe, Ariz., to watch Kansas State take on Ohio State in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. The Wildcats had an estimated 40,000 fans travel to Dallas for the 1997 Cotton Bowl, a figure nearly matched for the 2001 Cotton Bowl. The largest crowd ever to cross state lines to watch a college football game went with the Wildcats to Tempe for the 1997 Fiesta Bowl as nearly 45,000 fans joined K-State for its victory over Syracuse. As a result, K-State has averaged an announced attendance of more than 25,000 fans at each of its bowl games played in the Continental U.S. since 1993.

SNYDER AMONG BEST ACTIVE COACHES

The author of the greatest turnaround in college football history, Bill Snyder is in act two of guiding K-State, and his work ranks among the best in college football when compared to other active coaches. Snyder, who currently ranks 12th all-time in wins among active FBS coaches, is one of just two active BCS coaches who have served at the same school for at least 18 years and have never held the same position at another school (Joe Paterno of Penn State).

In regards to the conference ranks, his five Big 8/12 coach of the year awards also rank third among active coaches, behind only Steve Spurrier and Dennis Erickson.

Also, Snyder holds the 12th-best winning percentage among active FBS coaches with at least 125 wins. What might be even more amazing is that Snyder, who will earn his 150th career win with the Cats' next victory, has tallied the fifth-most victories among active coaches since 1990 despite a three-year hiatus. Snyder has guided K-State to 148 victories since the 1990 season, only to be out-done by Mack Brown, Frank Beamer, Joe Paterno and Spurrier.

RED ZONE ALERT

K-State has been one of the Big 12's best in terms of red zone offense this season. The Wildcats have currently converted on 39-of-43 trips inside their opponents' 20-yard line, 35 of which have gone for touchdowns and four field goals. That figure ranks second in the league and fifth nationally. Also, K-State has turned the ball over in the red zone just once this season - at Missouri.

THIRD-DOWN SUCCESS

K-State has also been one of the league's best teams in converting on third downs as the Wildcats currently rank second in the Big 12 with their 46.9-percent conversion rate. Over the last three games, K-State has converted on 28-of-49 third downs (57-percent), which includes a 14-of-20 (70-percent) performance against North Texas and an 8-of-15 (53-percent) output against Missouri.

DRAWING FIRST BLOOD

Scoring first has been a big sign of good things to come for the Wildcats. Since 1990, K-State's record when scoring first is very impressive as the Wildcats have gone 128-26 (83-percent) when drawing first blood. This season, the Wildcats are 5-2 when getting on the board first after taking the early lead in their first three games of this season, in their wins against Kansas and Texas and in losses to OSU and CU.

HALFWAY HOME

There's no better indicator of a Wildcat victory than when K-State leads or is tied at the half. Since 1990, the Cats have protected a halftime lead 97-percent of the time, going 143-5 when leading at halftime. This season, Kansas State is 5-0 when leading at the half and have outscored its opponent, 121-86, in the second quarter alone.

CATS OWN NATION'S 10TH-LONGEST SCORING STREAK

Kansas State extended one of the nation's longest scoring streaks against North Texas as the Wildcats have now tallied points in 176 consecutive games. The 176-game stretch is the 10th-longest streak in the nation. The Wildcats have not been kept off the scoreboard since Colorado shutout K-State, 12-0, on Nov. 16, 1996. In the Big 12, only Nebraska (189 games) owns a longer streak than the Cats.

GROUND GAINS

In 2010, K-State has established its running game and rushed its way to 2,472 yards, including six games with 200 or more yards, a figure that ranks second in the Big 12 and 20th nationally. Daniel Thomas has paved the way with 1,495 of those yards, which ranks ninth in the nation, while William Powell has also provided a spark, averaging 10.9 yards per carry. In a big win against Texas, K-State ran for 261 yards, which were the second-most yards the Horns had given up all season, behind quarterback Collin Klein's 127 yards and Thomas' 106. In fact, the Wildcats only attempted four passes and threw for nine yards in the 25-point win over the Longhorns.

K-State rushed for a season-high 373 yards in the season finale against North Texas, while it also eclipsed the 300-yard mark with 313 in the season opener against UCLA. The 373-yard outburst was the third-most in the Big 12 this season and the most by a Wildcat team since the 2004 Louisiana-Lafayette game when the Cats ran for 393 total yards. behind Darren Sproles' school-record 292 yards.

TAKING TO THE AIR... WHEN NEEDED

Although the Wildcats have shown the ability to be a physical team up front with a power running game, quarterback Carson Coffman has proven that the Cats can take to the air when needed. Coffman had two of his better games as a Wildcat against Big 12 opposition as the senior completed 35-of-45 his passes for 415 yards and two scores in games at Kansas and Baylor. Against the Jayhawks, Coffman compiled an efficiency rating of 231.6, which was the highest mark for a K-State quarterback in five seasons.

In his last three games, dating back to the Missouri game, Coffman has connected on 36-of-62 passes for 517 yards and four touchdowns. K-State currently ranks fifth in the Big 12 in passing efficiency, while Coffman ranks sixth in the league with his 139.0 pass efficiency rating. Coffman has thrown for 1,832 yards and 12 touchdowns this season while completing 64.2 of his passes.

CONTINUITY ALONG THE FRONT

Although the Wildcats have broken in two new starting tackles along the offensive line this season, the experience of guards Zach Kendall (All-Big 12) and Kenny Mayfield and center Wade Weibert (All-Big 12) have helped pave the way for Daniel Thomas and the K-State rushing attack this season. The group has led the way for the second-ranked rushing attack in the Big 12, averaging 206 yards a game on the ground. K-State returned four of its five regular starters from a season ago (97 combined starts) and has a combined 122 career starts among all of its current linemen. This season marks the third time since 1997 that four starting lineman from the previous season return (also happened in 2007).

CLEANING IT UP

This season, K-State has ranked among the Big 12's best in terms of being penalized. Through 12 games, the Wildcats have been flagged for 60 penalties and 469 yards, both of which are the fewest in the league. In the national ranks, K-State's 39.1 yards of penalties per game rank eighth in the country, while its 5.0 penalties per game average ranks 18th.

PICK ME

K-State saw its national ranking in turnover margin improve from 42nd to 15th in just one week after forcing Texas into five turnovers in its 39-14 win, while not committing any itself. The five turnovers were all interceptions and were the most in a game since forcing six against Iowa back in 1987. K-State has now forced 15 turnovers in the past six games and are +4 in turnover margin heading into the bowl season. Dating back to last season, K-State has forced 37 turnovers in its last 16 games while committing 25 (+12).

HIGH RATE OF RETURNS

Kansas State has ranked among the nation's leaders in kickoff returns over the last several years and behind the running ability of former walk-on running back William Powell, and the Wildcat kickoff return team, those numbers are returning to form here in 2010. Powell, a second team All-America pick by Rivals, currently ranks first in the Big 12 and tops nationally with his 34.6-yard return average, while the Wildcats as a team rank first in the Big 12 and eighth nationally in the category. So far this season, the Wildcats have collected 13 kickoff returns of 30 or more yards, 11 of which have come from Powell, including his school record-long 100-yarder against Baylor.

JUST FOR KICKS

K-State's success on special teams is not just limited to returns as the Wildcats' steady punt team unit has climbed to a No. 8 national ranking heading into the bowl season. Ryan Doerr has averaged 41.9 yards a punt this season and as a team has netted 39.8 per punt, which also ranks third among Big 12 schools.

VERY SPECIAL TEAMS

The rise of K-State football over the last two decades has much to do with the emphasis on special teams. Since 1990, Kansas State is 43-15 when scoring on special teams and 16-1 when scoring on special teams and on defense.

And, in non-offensive touchdowns, the Cats have ranked among the nation's best over the past 11-plus seasons. Since 1999, the Wildcats rank second nationally in non-offensive touchdowns with 77, behind only Virginia Tech (81). K-State had five non-offensive touchdowns in 2009 - four kickoff returns and one interception return - and four so far in 2010 (fake field goal, fumble and two kickoff returns).

MOST NON-OFFENSIVE TD'S SINCE 1999

BLOCK PARTY

Kansas State's play on special teams has been unparalleled as the Cats have the fifth-most blocks in the nation since 2002 with 37, which includes a school-record-tying nine total blocks in 2008 (four punts, two extra points and three field goals) and three (one punt, one field goal and one PAT) in 2009, two of which came from safety Emmanuel Lamur. Also, Kansas State has amassed 53 total blocked kicks since 1996 and currently ranks second among Big 12 schools, behind Texas, in total blocks in the 14-plus year history of the league. Tysyn Hartman's blocked PAT at Colorado was K-State's first blocked kick of 2010.

WELCOME HOME

Kansas State has become a haven for transfers returning to the state of Kansas after spending time at other FBS institutions. K-State boasts five Division I transfer players on its roster - all originally from the state of Kansas - including wide receivers Chris Harper (Wichita; University of Oregon) and Brodrick Smith (Garden City; University of Minnesota), who have returned to the playing field after sitting out in 2009. New to the squad this season are brothers Arthur (Miami, Fla.; linebacker) and Bryce (Tennessee; running back) Brown from Wichita, as well as offensive lineman Nick Puetz (Salina; Wyoming) after all three enrolled at K-State for the fall semester. Brown was rated the nation's top recruit two seasons ago by numerous recruiting services.

CAT FANS POURED THROUGH THE TURNSTILES IN 2010

Kansas State averaged 49,816 fans at Bill Snyder Family Stadium in six home games this season, which includes four sellout crowds of over 50,000 against UCLA, UCF, Nebraska and Oklahoma State. K-State set new attendance records for a season opener (51,059) versus UCLA and the first three non-conference games of a season (150,317) against UCLA, Missouri State and UCF, while the average of 49,816 is a new school record for a six-game home schedule and is the third-highest average in school history.

K-STATE NO. 1... AGAIN

Kansas State can stake claim as the Big 12 leader in all-sports graduation rate for an unprecedented fourth straight year as the NCAA released its latest graduation rate data. K-State's graduation success rate of 81-percent, which studies the 2000-2003 cohort for all Division I institutions, bested Missouri for the top spot among Big 12 schools. The GSR reflects the federal graduation rate cohort and adds those student-athletes receiving aid who entered mid-year as well as those who transferred into the institution. The Wildcats' four-class average of 67-percent, which is based on data from scholarship student-athletes receiving aid who were designated as freshmen for the 2003-04 academic year, tied Iowa State for the highest ranking and marked the fourth straight year that Kansas State led the Big 12 in this category.

GRADUATING EARLY

Kansas State has been the Big 12 leader in all-sports graduation rate by student-athletes in each of the last four years. The same holds true specifically for football as the program has also led the conference in graduation rates over the same time period. So it should come as no surprise that the Wildcats are one of the national leaders when it comes to players who have completed their degree or are on track to finish this semester. K-State is second nationally with active graduates on its roster with 13.

LOOKING TO FINISH STRONG

Senior running back Daniel Thomas sprinted out of the gates and has maintained a solid pace this season, totaling 1,495 yards, thanks in part to seven 100-yard games, including two 200-yard performances. His week-one rushing total of 234 yards against UCLA was the highest by a Wildcat in a season-opening game in school history and the sixth highest in school history, while his 269 yards to finish the season at North Texas ranked third.

With another 100-yard game against Syracuse, Thomas can finish second in both single-season and career rushing yards. The Hilliard, Fla., product already ranks second for a season, while he needs 59 yards vs. the Orange to move into second for a career.

WORKHORSE

Daniel Thomas brings a lot more to the table than just his rushing ability. Thomas registered 276 total touches out of 802 offensive plays in 2009 (247 rushes, 25 receptions and 4 pass attempts), which was 34.4-percent of the total offense. Thomas has been even more involved in 2010 as he has totaled 308 touches (276 rushes, 26 catches, 6 pass attempts) in K-State's 786 offensive plays, which is 39.2-percent of the total offense. Thomas' highest percentage this season came against Iowa State when he rushed 34 times out of K-State's 62 offensive plays, good for a 54.8-percent clip.

IRONMAN

Daniel Thomas has received more carries per game than any other feature running back in school history. The senior, who has 14 career games with 20 or more carries, needs 30 carries to tie the school record for single-season rushing attempts, but will finish third for carries in a career.

However, in terms of attempts per game, Thomas has blown away the competition for both a career and a season. Thomas has averaged 21.8 carries in his 24 career games, the only player in the school's top 10 of career attempts to top the 20.0 mark. Thomas' 276 attempts this year averages out to 23 per game, which is 0.8 better than Sproles' pace of 22.2 in 2004.

ATTEMPTS PER GAME

Career

Players, Years	Att./Gm
Daniel Thomas, 2009-10	21.8
Darren Sproles, 2001-04	18.1

SPEAKING OF AVERAGES...

Aside from holding the career and single-season attempts per game record, Thomas can also break the school record for highest rushing average per game in a career. His current average of 115.0 is nearly five yards better than Darren Sproles' per game average of 110.6 from 2001-04. Sproles, however, holds the season record at 132.4 in 2003. To break Sproles' season record, Thomas would need to gain 227 yards on the ground against Syracuse.

FASTEST TO 1,000

Needing just four yards against Texas to get to 1,000 for the season, running back Daniel Thomas did so in dramatic fashion as he took his first hand off 34 yards for a touchdown less than a minute into the game. With the rush, Thomas tied Darren Sproles' mark in 2004 of needing nine games to get there. Thomas, who climbed over 1,000 yards on his 197th carry of the year, ranks eighth in that department.

ANCHORS OF THE LINE

Guard Zach Kendall and center Wade Weibert have been the rock of the offensive line that has helped K-State become one of the nation's top rushing teams and have paved the way for Daniel Thomas to rank second in the Big 12 and ninth nationally among individuals. The Wildcats, who's 206.0 yards-per-game average ranks second in the Big 12 and 20th in the NCAA, have relied heavily on the senior offensive linemen. The duo has combined for 53 career starts, while both have started every game each of the past two seasons. For their efforts, Kendall was named First Team All-Big 12 by the Dallas Morning News, while he earned second-team honors from the league's coaches, the Associated Press, the Kansas City Star and Phil Steele. Weibert, a preseason candidate for the Rimington Trophy, was a Second Team All-Big 12 selection by the Associated Press and the Kansas City Star.

QUARLES TOPS 100... AGAIN

Aubrey Quarles, who became the 25th receiver in school history to reach the 1,000-yard mark this season, recorded consecutive 100-yard receiving games late in the regular season. After a career-high 133 yards at Missouri followed by 114 yards at Colorado, Quarles became the first player since Brandon Banks in 2008 to tally consecutive 100-yard games and just the 10th player to do so in school history (13th occurrence).

Although he missed out on three-straight 100-yard games in the regular season finale, Quarles can tie for eighth in school history with four 100-yard games in a season. He is already tied for ninth with four 100-yard games in his career, while his next one would move him into a tie for fifth.

ON A FRANTIC PACE

After an injury sidelined him for all of 2009, wide receiver Aubrey Quarles has taken two steps forward in 2010. The Aurora, Colo., product leads the team in catches, receiving yards and touchdowns, thanks to a very product second half of the season. Quarles had 18 grabs for 244 yards and two touchdowns in the first six games, but has combined for 29 catches for 441 yards and three touchdowns over the last half of the year, a stretch that includes no catches against Texas and just one reception for nine yards at North Texas.

Since an injury to William Powell in the Texas game, wide receiver Aubrey Quarles has become K-State's feature kickoff returner and the Wildcats have not seen a drop in production. In the final three games of the regular season, Quarles 31.5 yards on eight kickoff returns, boosted by his performance at North Texas in the regular season finale. Against the Mean Green, Quarles set the school record for kickoff return yardage with 197, 92 of which came on his first career touchdown return to answer a UNT kickoff return touchdown.

Besides setting the single-game record for return yards, Quarles is fifth in career kickoff return yardage (973) in school history, while he ranks eighth in single-season average (25.9).

KLEIN RUSHES TO HISTORY

Sophomore quarterback Collin Klein delivered in his first two games of extensive action at quarterback. In his first career start against Texas, Klein rushed for 127 yards and two touchdowns, setting a school record for rushing yards by a quarterback in his first career start. His mark bettered Ell Roberson's 119 yards at USC in 2001. After rushing for a career high 141 yards at Missouri, Klein recorded the best consecutive 100-yard rushing performances by a quarterback in school history.

With 36 yards and two touchdowns at Colorado, he became the first quarterback to total 300 rushing yards over three games since Roberson in 2002 (362; 228 vs. Nebraska, 71 at Missouri, 63 vs. Arizona State). He also collected 31 yards and one score at North Texas to end the final four games of the regular season with five touchdowns.

EFFECTIVE PASSING

Senior quarterback Carson Coffman has been one of the most efficient passers in school history, boosted by his 138.95 passer efficency rating this year, which ranks fifth in school history, while he holds a four-year rating of 131.0, which is sixth all-time at K-State. However, he had one of the most productive games in school history at Kansas when he went 15-of-16 for 184 yards and two touchdowns, good a single-game rating of 231.6, the highest by a Wildcat since Allen Webb's school record of 300.9 in 2005.

His completion percentage of 93.8-percent against KU broke the school record previously held by Brian Kavanagh vs. Indiana State in 1996 (86.4), while it was just 0.3-percent lower than the Big 12 record of 94.1-percent by Missouri's Chase Daniel in 2008.

AERIAL ATTACK

Although Kansas State is viewed as a running team, Carson Coffman still performed at a high level over a five-game stretch against Kansas, Baylor, Oklahoma State Missouri and Colorado, combining to go 85-for-132 (64.4-percent) for 1,025 yards and four touchdowns through the air, while he also added six rushing scores during that span. During those five games, the Peculiar, Mo., product set career highs for completions (23), attempts (35) and tied his career high for touchdowns (two, twice), while he had 20 or more completions twice and 170 or more yards in all five games. In his previous 19 career games played, Coffman topped the 20 completion mark just once, had more than 170 yards on five times and had two or more touchdowns just two other times.

POWELL YIELDS HIGH RATE OF RETURN

Kansas State received the most from former walk-on running back William Powell. Powell currently leads the nation with a kickoff return average of 34.6 yards, thanks in part to four returns covering more than 50 yards, including a 100-yarder at Baylor and a 62-yarder against Texas. His average is 0.2 yards per return shy of the Big 12 record of 34.8 by Oklahoma State's Chris Massey in 2001. For his efforts, Powell was selected as the First Team All-Big 12 kick returner by the league's coaches, the Kansas City Star and Phil Steele, while he was an honorable mention all-purpose runner by the Associated Press. The Duncanville, Texas, product, who was a candidate for the Rudy and Burlsworth Awards, also rushed at a high rate during the regular season and every time he touched the ball he was a threat to score. In 23 attempts this season, Powell gained 250 yards, good for a 10.9-yard average, while he scored four rushing touchdowns.

WILDCAT PLAYERS IN THE NFL

Kansas State placed 14 former players on NFL rosters when teams were mandated to trim their rosters to 53 active players on Sept. 4. Of the 14 players, eight were on offense and six were on defense.

The longest-tenured former Wildcats included running back Rock Cartwright (ninth season), safety Jon McGraw (ninth season) and cornerback Terrance Newman (eighth season).

Two players from the 2009 Wildcats captured spots on active rosters as sixth-round draft pick Joshua Moore remained on the Chicago Bears' active roster, while wide receiver Brandon Banks made the 53-man roster for the Washington Redskins as an undrafted rookie free agent.

WALKER STEPPING UP

Not to be outdone by Zimmerman, another true freshman, Tre Walker, has become a force at linebacker over the final stretch of the regular season, earning increased playing time each week. The Olathe, Kan., product, who has earned his first two career starts the at Missouri and at Colorado, while he carded 38 tackles over the final four games, the most by a Wildcat freshman since 1996. Then-redshirt freshman Mark Simoneau also totaled 38 stops over a four-game stint against Missouri (11), Texas A&M (11), Oklahoma (13) and Kansas (3). Walker, who had a then-career high seven tackles at Kansas, was a force against Texas with 11 stops before picking up 12 at Missouri, nine at Colorado and six at North Texas. The freshman also picked off his first career pass against the Tigers and returned it 17 yards.

GARRETT GETS THE STOPS

Junior David Garrett ended the season with a team-high 86 tackles, the most by a Wildcat since Brandon Archer in 2006, while fueled the defensive back to honorable mention All-Big 12 honors from the Associated Press. The Cleveland, Ohio, native boosted his total with three double-digit tackle games, including a career best 16 at Colorado. His total against the Buffs were the most by a Wildcat since Josh Buhl brought down 18 ball carriers against Marshall on Sept. 20, 2003. Of his 16 tackles, 14 were solo stops, which were the most by a K-State defender since Sept. 13, 1997, when Lamar Chapman also had 14 vs. Ohio.

BEHIND ENEMY LINES

David Garrett not only recorded the most tackles by a Wildcat since 2006, but he also had the most tackles for loss since that bowl-eligible season with 13.0 TFLs. Fueled by 3.0 TFLs at Baylor and 2.0 apiece at Kansas and Colorado, Garrett finished fifth in the Big 12 in the department, while his 10.5 TFLs against conference opponents ranked third.

SWATTING IT AWAY

Stephen Harrison and Terrance Sweeney have been two of the better defensive backs in the Big 12 in terms of passes defended as the duo has combined for 25 pass breakups and four interceptions this season. Harrison, who was seventh in the Big 12 and 33rd nationally last year in passes defended, has 14 this year to rank second in the league and tie for 10th in the NCAA. Of his 14 passes defended, 13 came against Big 12 foes, which led the league. Sweeney is right on Harrison's heels as the Houston, Texas, product has 11 to tie for seventh in the conference.

ADAMS ON TARGET

The most unsung hero on K-State's roster, and perhaps the Big 12, is long snapper Corey Adams. Adams, a First Team Midseason All-American by Phil Steele, has been perfect on a combined 475 snaps in his three-plus year career and has appeared in all 47 games of his Wildcat career. This season, Adams has been true on all 60 field goal/PAT attempts and 58 punt snaps. The Monument, Colo., product has also excelled off the field as he is a semifinalist for the Campbell Trophy, which is considered the "Academic Heisman." He was also named to the preseason candidate list for the Senior CLASS Award.

JUST FOR KICKS

Place kickers Josh Cherry and Anthony Cantele have helped the Wildcat special teams units become one of the strongest in the Big 12. Although he was only called upon eight times this season, Cherry was true on 7-of-8 field goal attempts this season, including six makes against Big 12 competition. Against his homestate team Nebraska, Cherry connected from 40 and a career-long 48 yards, becoming the first K-State place kicker since 2006 to make two 40-plus long field goals in the same game.

Cherry ranks ninth in school history with 19 career field goals, but is also a great athlete as he is on both punt and kickoff coverage teams, recording three tackles this season.

Cantele, who earned Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week honors following his performance against UCLA, is the team's primary kickoff specialist, hitting 67 kickoffs for a 63.4-yard average and 15 touchbacks. A former soccer player at Missouri State, Cantele also showed his athleticism as he took a fake field goal in for a score against his former school.

LOCAL STAR SHINES EARLY IN CAREER

True freshman safety Ty Zimmerman made history this season when he was named a Second Team All-Big 12 performer by the league's coaches. With the distinction, the Junction City, Kan., product became the first true freshman in school history to earn either first or second team all-conference honors, while he was the 10th Wildcat underclassman in the Big 12 era to be named all-league.

Zimmerman has been one of Kansas State's most consistent defenders this season as he finished the regular season with 69 tackles, which ranked second in the Big 12 among freshmen. He finished the year with seven straight games with six or more stops, a stretch that also included 4.0 tackles for loss, three interceptions and three fumble recoveries. His three picks all came in key wins as he recorded two in a bowl-eligibility-securing win over Texas and another on the final play of North Texas game.

Head Coach BILL SNYDER

*19th Season at K-State

currently ranked 12th Nationally in Wins among active FBS coaches

The Architect of the Greatest Turnaround in College Football History

The 2009 season saw one of the greatest legends in college football return to the sidelines in hopes of revitalizing a program that he once built, piece by piece, into a national force. And, after two seasons back in charge, Bill Snyder is well on his way to doing just that.

The architect of the "greatest turnaround in the history of college football" Bill Snyder returned to lead the Kansas State football program in 2009 after 17 ultra-successful seasons as the head coach from 1989-2005. And, following a 7-5 campaign in 2010, Snyder has K-State back in the bowl picture following its berth in the inaugural New Era Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium.

In 2010, Snyder's Wildcats jumped out to a 5-1 start, which included big wins over UCLA, Conference USA Champion UCF and Iowa State, behind All-Big 12 running back Daniel Thomas, who became the fastest Wildcat in school history (in terms of games) to rush for 1,000 yards.

K-State would then dominate rival Kansas and close out the home schedule with a convincing 39-14 win over Texas to become bowl-eligible.

Eight Wildcats would earn All-Big 12 honors in 2010 with Thomas and William Powell, who led the nation in kick returns, garnering first team honors.

In his first season back as the head man of the Wildcat program, Snyder led the Wildcats to a 6-6 record in 2009 and a second place finish in the Big 12 North. In fact, K-State was just one win away from advancing to the Big 12 Championship game as the Wildcats played at Nebraska in the season finale with a championship game berth on the line. Not bad for a program that was picked by most preseason publications to finish fifth or even sixth in the 2009 Big 12 North race.

K-State claimed more First Team All-Big 12 selections on offense than any other school with four last season. Big 12 Newcomer of the Year Daniel Thomas led the league in rushing in his first year at the position, while Nick Stringer, Jeron Mastrud and Brandon Banks also garnered first team accolades.

Named the 32nd head football coach at Kansas State on Nov. 30, 1988, and again as the 34th on Nov. 24 2008, Snyder has amassed a 149-79-1 (.653) record during his tenure with the Wildcats, including an 82-62-1 (.569) mark in Big 8/12 games. His 149 victories are the 12th-most among active FBS coaches and are more than triple the man in second place on K-State's all-time coaching victories list (Mike Ahearn, 39 wins).

But to fully understand the turnaround ushered in by Snyder at Kansas State one must only consider that the Wildcats were in the midst of an 0-26-1 run when he was hired. It also took K-State 51 seasons (1938-1988) to total just 130 wins, while the 12 head coaches prior to Snyder's arrival in Manhattan combined to win just 116 games from 1945-1988.

Snyder led Kansas State to 11 straight bowl berths between the 1993 and 2003 seasons, making K-State one of only seven programs in the nation to appear in the postseason every year during that stretch. During that span, Snyder's Wildcats won nearly 80 percent of their games, chalking up 109 victories - a staggering average of nearly 10 wins per season - and making Kansas State the nation's second-winningest program over that period.

And Snyder continued to break new ground with the Wildcats. Kansas State's 35-7 victory over top-ranked Oklahoma in the 2003 Big 12 Championship game lifted K-State to its first conference championship since Pappy Waldorf's 1934 squad and secured the school's first BCS bowl berth in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

With an 11-4 record in 2003, K-State was the only team in the country to win 11 games in six of the previous seven years and just the second program in the history of college football to win 11 games six times in a seven-year stretch.

Snyder's unprecedented success in 19 years at Kansas State has not gone unnoticed. He was named the National Coach of the Year on three occasions (1991, 1994 and 1998). He has been a finalist for the prestigious Bear Bryant/FWAA National Coach of the Year Award in 1993 and 1995 before winning in 1998; a finalist for the Football News National Coach of the Year Award in 1995 and 1998; and a finalist for the Kodak/AFCA National Coach of the Year Award in 1993 and 1998.

In 1993, he joined legendary Nebraska head coach Bob Devaney as the only head coaches in Big Eight history to be named Associated Press Big Eight Coach of the Year three times in a four-year period (1990, 1991 and 1993). The Houston Chronicle named him the 1996 Big 12 Coach of the Year, while he earned 1997 and 1998 Big 12 Coach of the Year honors from the Kansas City Star. Snyder also was the 1998 Big 12 Coach of the Year by the AP and by a vote of league coaches before earning the league coaches' support again in 2002. The 2003 season brought more honors, including Big 12 Coach of the Year accolades from the Fort Worth Star-Telegram and ESPN.com.

Since the inception of the Big 12 Conference, Snyder's Wildcats truly became a dominant force in the league, ranking in the top three in overall Big 12 wins during his first tenure. Kansas State also won more Big 12 road games than any team in the league and advanced to the championship game three times.

Those facts alone demonstrate the continuing evolution of a power in the Big 12 Conference and with it the recognition that Snyder is truly one of the finest coaches in college football today.

The list of accomplishments Snyder has amassed in his 19 years is as endless as the time most people thought it would take for the Wildcats to be a consistent threat in the Big Eight, and now, Big 12 Conference.

Like so many in recent history, the 2003 campaign was a dramatically successful one for K-State, which ended the regular season with seven straight wins, a fourth Big 12 North Division title, its first Big 12 Championship and another top-20 finish.

But the 2003 season was not without its bumps in the road as the Wildcats overcame their share of adversity to produce perhaps the greatest season in school history. Ranked as high as No. 6 nationally in the early going, a key injury to quarterback Ell Roberson precipitated a three-game slide that threatened to wipe out a promising season.

The three losses all but erased K-State from the national consciousness, as the Wildcats slipped out of the both polls for the first time since the second game of the 2002 season. But Snyder was not about to allow the year to spiral out of control. He constantly reminded his players that they still controlled their own destiny, and if they could just go 1-0 each week the season would take care of itself and the team would ultimately achieve its goals.

And like everything Snyder seems to touch, this strategy too worked, as the Wildcats rode their 1-0 mantra week after week all the way to a berth in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

Along the way, five different Wildcats were lauded for their efforts with All-America honors, including K-State's first Associated Press first team All-American running back, Darren Sproles, who finished fifth in voting for the Heisman Trophy, was the Doak Walker Award runner-up and finished third on the AP's Player of the Year ballot.

But Sproles was the lone player with star power that returned for the 2004 campaign. And though the little tank produced yet another record-breaking season capped by his third-straight selection to an All-Big 12 team, the lack of experience was one reason K-State struggled through a 4-7 rebuilding campaign.

The 2002 season was one of the best in Kansas State history, witnessed by the Wildcats' five-victory turnaround from the previous year's 6-6 team to a win in the Pacific Life Holiday Bowl and an 11-2 overall record.

In addition, the 2002 Wildcats set or tied 45 school records, including tying the mark for wins in a season.

Snyder's Wildcats finished the season with six consecutive victories, including the biggest wins in the history of the series in each of a three-week span against Kansas, Iowa State and Nebraska.

The Wildcats' dominant play down the stretch of the 2002 season earned Snyder the recognition of his peers as the Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year.

In 2001, Snyder directed one of the best in-season turnarounds in school history. Despite losing four straight in the middle of the year and facing the fourth-toughest schedule in the nation, the Wildcats recovered to win four of their last five games to end the regular season with a 6-5 record and a berth in the Insight.com Bowl.

Despite the record, the quality of players produced by the Snyder-led coaching staff continued to attract national attention from those who best know the game.

Six Kansas State players were selected in the 2002 NFL Draft, the most of any team in the Big 12 Conference, with only six schools in the country having more players picked in the draft.

The Wildcats started the 2000 season ranked in the Top 10 for just the second time in school history and made a four-week run into the Top 5 that saw K-State climb as high as No. 2 in the nation. K-State won the Big 12 North Division for the second time in three years and earned at least a share of the title for the third consecutive season. K-State had six players named first team All-Big 12 by the league's coaches, and PK Jamie Rheem, DT Mario Fatafehi and WR Quincy Morgan were All-Americans.

The 1999 season saw the Wildcats climb from No. 20 in the preseason poll to finish at No. 6, after starting the season with nine straight victories, and win 11 games for the third straight year. K-State tied Nebraska for the Wildcats' second consecutive Big 12 North Division Championship. All this came in what many thought would be a rebuilding season. K-State led the conference in first team picks with seven.

In 1998, Snyder led K-State to its second straight 11-win season and a No. 4 ranking in the final regular season polls. In November, K-State occupied a No. 1 ranking in a national poll for the first time in school history. The Wildcats won the Big 12 Conference North Division and advanced to a bowl game for the sixth year in a row. K-State won its first 11 games of the season and ran its winning streak to a school-record 20 games before falling to Texas A&M in the Big 12 Championship game.Quarterback Michael Bishop became the first Wildcat to be a finalist for the Heisman Trophy, and a total of six K-Staters earned All-America honors.

COACHING STAFF

Snyder earned National Coach of the Year honors from the Walter Camp Foundation, the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Foundation, the Associated Press, the Paul "Bear" Bryant Award and the Schutt Sports Group.

In 1997, Snyder led the Wildcats to their first 11-win season in school history, a No. 7 final ranking and the first 10-win regular season since 1910. It was just the third 10-win season in 102 years of K-State football. Kansas State won a school-record seven conference games, finishing second in the North to undefeated and national champion Nebraska.

The Wildcats defeated South Division champion Texas A&M, 36-17. The season ended with a 35-18 win over Big East Conference champion Syracuse in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, with an estimated 50,000 K-State fans attending K-State's first-ever Alliance Bowl.

The 1996 season saw K-State finish with a 9-3 record, while more than 45,000 Wildcat fans painted Dallas purple for the Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowl, K-State's first-ever New Year's Day Bowl. Despite a 19-15 loss to No. 5 BYU, the support and respect for the K-State program grew to unprecedented heights.

In 1995, Snyder guided K-State to a 10-2 record, including a 5-2 Big Eight mark to tie for second place behind national champion Nebraska. Following a 54-21 blitzing of WAC champion Colorado State in the 1995 Holiday Bowl, the Wildcats finished the season ranked sixth in the USA Today/CNN coaches poll and seventh in the Associated Press poll. Both rankings were the highest ever attained by a Kansas State football team to that point.

In 1995, the Wildcats finished tied for second in the Big Eight and their 5-2 league mark gave K-State two consecutive 5-2 Big Eight seasons. In the last three years of the Big Eight, the Wildcats defeated or tied every team in the league except Nebraska. Since the inception of the Big 12 in 1996, K-State is 53-27 in league games under Snyder (10 seasons).

In 1993, Snyder guided K-State to its first bowl win in school history and, in 1994, the Wildcats cracked the Top 10 for the first time in school history. In 1998, the K-State achieved a No. 1 national ranking in one of the major polls for the first time in the program's history.

Individually, Snyder produced 45 different All-Americans during his 17 years as head coach, including nine consensus first-team All-Americans: in 1992 (P Sean Snyder), 1993 (FS Jaime Mendez), 1995 (CB Chris Canty), 1996 (Canty), 1997 (PK Martin Gramatica), 1998 (PR David Allen), 1999 (LB Mark Simoneau) and 2002 (CB Terence Newman).

Newman became the third Wildcat to win a national award when he was voted the 2002 Thorpe Award, given to the top collegiate defensive back. Gramatica was the 1997 Lou Groza Award winner, the first major award winner in Kansas State history. Quarterback Michael Bishop became the first K-State player to be named a finalist for the Heisman Trophy (finishing as runner-up) while winning the Davey O'Brien Award.

The foundation for K-State's turnaround was laid in 1989 during Snyder's first season in Manhattan. Although the season yielded just a 1-10 record, it became evident to everyone involved in the program that something special was happening. Most important, Snyder instilled a winning attitude and a healthy dose of self-respect and enthusiasm to a program that had been given up for dead.

In 1990, K-State was one of just four teams in the country to improve its record by four games with a 5-6 mark, including its first Big Eight Conference wins in four seasons with victories over Oklahoma State and Iowa State. Snyder again beat those two schools in 1991, while adding Kansas and Missouri to the list of his Big Eight victims to finish at 7-4 for K-State's first winning season since the Independence Bowl season of 1982. Heavy graduation losses on the offensive side of the ball resulted in a 5-6 mark in 1992, but the Cats were still able to hang their hats on their first perfect home season since 1934.

Of course, it should come as no surprise that Snyder would be this kind of architect for a building program. At Iowa, he played a key role in the renaissance of a Hawkeye program that went from 17 consecutive losing seasons to eight straight bowls. Snyder was the mind behind Iowa's potent offensive attack. The Hawkeye offense ranked first in passing efficiency and third in passing yardage nationally in Snyder's last five years of direction. In his final Iowa season, the Peach Bowl team led the Big Ten, and ranked seventh nationally, with 277 passing yards per game. That team was second in the Big Ten with 416 yards of offense per game. Snyder also served as quarterback coach at Iowa and helped develop some of the best quarterbacks in NCAA history, including NFL players Chuck Long (second in Heisman voting), Mark Vlasic and Chuck Hartlieb, who wrapped up his career as the first Hawkeye to throw for 3,000 yards in back-to-back seasons.

Snyder began his full-time coaching career in 1964 as an assistant at Indio High School in California. In 1966 he served as a graduate assistant at USC under John McKay before returning to become head coach at Indio High School in 1967. He accepted the same position at Santa Ana Foothill High School in 1969, where he stayed until 1973.

In 1974, Snyder became the offensive coordinator on the football staff and head swimming coach at Austin College in Sherman, Texas. He joined the University of North Texas staff in 1976 and helped author an impressive turnaround with a three-year record of 26-7. He left UNT for Iowa in 1979.

During his three-year hiatus, Snyder remained involved with the university and is currently a member of the Missouri and Kansas Halls of Fame, the K-State and Austin College Athletics Halls of Fame while also being inducted into the Holiday Bowl Hall of Fame. The long-time mentor also remained active in the community as he currently is the Chairman of the Kansas Mentors Council and the Kansas Leadership Council, a member of the Board of Directors for Kansas Leadership Center, the Board of Trustees for the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame, the KSU Leadership Studies Advancement Council, the Terry C. Johnson Cancer Research Center Advisory Council, the Manhattan Community Foundation Board of Trustees, the KSU Foundation Board of Trustees and is the Honorary Co-Chairman of the Kansas Masonic Partnership for Life.

Snyder, 71, received his B.A. from William Jewell in 1963. He earned his M.A. from Eastern New Mexico in 1965. As a player, he was a three-year letterwinner as a defensive back at William Jewell. Snyder and his wife, Sharon, have two sons (Sean and Ross) and three daughters (Shannon, Meredith and Whitney). They also have eight grandchildren, Sydney, Katherine, Tate, Matthew, Alexis, Gavin, Kadin and Tylin, and one great-grandson, D.J.

BACK IN BUSINESS

Kansas State's 2010 football record says it all.

Seven wins indicate there were some ups; five losses advertise there were some downs. But at the end of the day, the the Wildcats progressed in the right direction under legendary head coach Bill Snyder and are back in the postseason for the first time since 2006.

"Inconsistencies," said Snyder in defining the 2010 season. "At some point of the season, we were probably a little bit better than we should have been, and then there were times when we were not as good as we should have been."

The good part came early when K-State got off to a 5-1 start to the season, which included big wins over UCLA, Conference USA Champion UCF and Iowa State. Excitement in Wildcat football was also evidenced by four sell-out crowds of over 50,000 at Bill Snyder Family Stadium and the largest total attendance for a six-game home season in Kansas State history.

But, the 5-1 start was followed by a 2-4 second half, which was highlighted by a 39-14 punishing of Texas in Manhattan, the program's third straight win over the Longhorns. And, the Governor's Trophy remained in Manhattan for the second straight year following the Cats' 59-7 romp of rival Kansas in Lawrence.

To pinpoint the reason for the second-half drop off, one first looks at the schedule itself. In the first six games, only Nebraska and Central Florida is in postseason play. In the second half of the schedule, three of the six - Baylor, Oklahoma State and Missouri - will be involved in a bowl game as the Cats made their way through the daunting Big 12 Conference schedule.

If "inconsistency" is the single word to describe the season, "lack of depth" is the phrase Snyder uses to define why there were highs and lows.

"We started getting beat up. Then when you don't have that many players, you get tired and then get more banged up," said Snyder, who indicated that the present scholarship count was at 67, or 18 below the NCAA maximum of 85.

"We just didn't have enough people at the end of the season to endure the grind we had to go through. We tapered off at the end and were not as productive as early in the year."

In the first Bill Snyder run, special teams play played a pivotal role to K-State's success, which included an 11-year run of bowl games. Now two seasons into his return, it seems to be the third of the game that is on the most solid ground.

In 2010:

- William Powell was tops in the nation in kickoff returns (34.57), and the K-State team was second nationally (25.82).
- The punt team with Ryan Doerr was eighth in the country in net punting (39.78).
- The Wildcats were fifth in the Big 12 in punt returns (8.5).
- K-State was sixth in the league in kickoff coverage.
- Josh Cherry was 7-of-8 in field goals and the team was 49-of-50 on extra points.
- K-State's two special teams TD's gave the Wildcats 77 non-offensive scores since 1999 - the second-most in the nation.

All are areas that Snyder calls "... imperative to a team's success. While there were inconsistencies, our special teams were productive over the course of the entire season."

Also impressive during the 12-game fall season were these areas:

• K-State was tops in the league and 21st in the nation in third-down conversions (.451), and second in the Big 12 in fourth-down conversions (.625).

• The Wildcats were second in the league and seventh nationally in Red Zone scoring (.910).

• K-State ranked No. 1 in fewest penalties and yardage (a total of 60 for 39.1 yards per game).

"These are areas where you have to do well if you hope to win, and we did pretty well," said Snyder. "But we had other areas where we struggled, and those were areas that were costly in a number of instances."

Offensively, Snyder said, "We weren't as consistent in our balance that we would have liked to be. We were productive with our running game most of the time, but not 100 percent of the time."

The balance Snyder mentions includes K-State running the ball 518 times for 2,472 yards, or an average of 206 yards per game, and passing the ball 268 times for 2,073 yards, or 173 yards per game.

Team-wise, K-State's run game ranked second in the league and 20th nationally, and its team total of 37 rushing scores were six more than any other Big 12 team. Overall, K-State had one game of rushing for more than 300 yards, plus five others of 200-plus ground yards. The inconsistencies come from the fact that K-State had four other games when it rushed for between 83 and 111 yards.

Individually, All-Big 12 pick and All-America candidate Daniel Thomas was a better player than a year ago in every aspect. Compared to his junior season, Thomas' numbers went from 247 carries to 276, his yardage from 1,265 to 1,495, his yards per carry from 5.1 to 5.4, and his touchdowns from 11 to 16. His number of touchdowns led the Big 12 Conference, while the number of carries and the yardage ranked second.

"He was a better player (as a senior)," Snyder said. "How much better? I haven't thought about that, but he did make an improvement, and did it in a year when teams were much more aware of him than last year."

Snyder also pointed to the overall offensive line as an area of betterment from a year ago, plus acknowledged how "a couple" receivers stepped up when Brodrick Smith and Tramaine Thompson were lost for the season due to injury.

Aubrey Quarles led the team in receptions with 46 for 676 yards, while Adrian Hilburn caught 20 passes for 195 yards. Quarles had 29 catches in his final six games, and Hilburn had 16 of his 20 catches in the last half of his senior season.

Defensively, Snyder said, "We were even more inconsistent."

"People think we never played well, but the defense held Oklahoma State to 17 points, and we held Texas to 14 points," said Snyder. "Those were two pretty good efforts."

But in the next breath, he adds, "There were too many other games where we gave up too many yards against the run and had some discipline issues on not being where you're supposed to be. There were just too many inconsistencies with our performance."

K-State had four games where it allowed less than 345 yards, but in the other eight games the opponent totaled at least 412 yards, which included Baylor rolling up 683 yards, Nebraska 587 yards and Oklahoma State 511 yards.

While the rush game ranked last in the league giving up 229 yards per game, Snyder gave praise to the improved play of the secondary, which helped the pass defense to rank fourth in the league.

Unusual is the fact that K-State's overall defense ranked 11th in the league allowing 441 yards per game, but its scoring defense of 28.5 points per game ranked seventh in the league.

"Inconsistencies," explained Snyder.

But all in all, the regular season provided a step in the right direction for Snyder's second rebuilding job as an offense with one of the top running backs in the country, a special teams unit that ranked as one of the nation's best and a solid mixture of experienced and young players sprinkled throughout both sides of the ball equaled a 7-5 record and a berth in the inaugural New Era Pinstripe Bowl on December 30.

Daniel Thomas registered career highs in rushing yards (234), rushing attempts(28) and longest run (44) in K-State's 31-22 season-opening win over UCLA. Thomas recorded the 12th 200-plus yard game in school history and the fifth-highest for a single game.

MANHATTAN, Kan. - Daniel Thomas rushed for 234 yards and two touchdowns and Kansas State rallied for a 31-22 victory over UCLA Saturday before a crowd of 51,059, the biggest for a home opener in Wildcats' history.

There were three touchdowns in the final 123 seconds and Kansas State had two, including Thomas' 35-yard gallop after the Wildcats fell on UCLA's onside kick.

Thomas, the Big 12's leading rusher last year, set up scores with several big runs, including one for 44 yards and another for 29. His 28 carries and 235 yards were both career highs.

After Carson Coffman's 5-yard TD pass to Brodrick Smith put Kansas State ahead 24-16 with 2:03 left, Kevin Prince led the Bruins on a lightning-quick drive, hitting Cory Harkey for 35 yards and then connecting with Ricky Marvray on a 29-yard TD toss. With 1:19 to play, the Bruins elected to go for 2. But Prince's pass into the end zone fell incomplete and Kansas State's Travis Tannahill recovered the ensuing onside kick.

Seemingly just trying to run out the clock, the Wildcats handed the ball to Thomas and the quick, rugged senior burst through a hole over the right side and dashed 35 yards for the TD that clinched Kansas State's 21st consecutive victory in a home opener.

William Powell had 72 yards on just six carries for Kansas State, which erupted in the second half after managing only nine total yards in the entire second quarter. Coffman was 11 for 16 for just 66 yards and was sacked five times by a Bruin defense that had an answer for everything except Thomas. The preseason pick for offensive player of the year in the Big 12 also had two receptions, including one for 21 yards that set up the first touchdown.

The Bruins held on fourth-and-goal from the 1, but an illegal participation penalty on UCLA gave Kansas State another shot and Thomas scored.

A 60-yard punt and a great open field tackle pinned Kansas State deep in the second quarter and Coffman fumbled the snap. Akeem Ayers recovered for the Bruins, and on the next play, Prince faked left and bootlegged right, dashing untouched into the end zone.

UCLA's Kai Forbath, who struggled all week with a sore groin, kicked three field goals and ran his streak to 40 in a row from inside 50 yards. His 44-yarder put UCLA on top 10-7 near the end of the first half and he added one from 35 and one from 42. The last one came with 6:28 to go and pulled UCLA to 17-16.

Thomas' tackle-breaking 44-yard run in the third quarter was followed by William Powell's 28-yard touchdown run, giving Kansas State a 14-10 lead.

Kansas State's Anthony Cantele had a 35-yard field goal near the end of the third quarter following Thomas' 29-yard burst. Thomas was the first Wildcat to rush for more than 200 yards in six years.

David Garrett recorded his first career interception with eight seconds left in the first half to stop a UCLA drive.

Place kicker Anthony Cantele scored a touchdown on a fake field goal in the second quarter. Cantele, who earned Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week honors after week one, took an option pitch from holder Ryan Doerr and ran in from three yards out.

MANHATTAN, Kan. - Carson Coffman threw three touchdown passes and Daniel Thomas rushed for 137 yards as Kansas State rolled to a 48-24 victory over Missouri State on Saturday night.

The Wildcats (2-0) led 27-7 at halftime, showcasing a productive passing attack to augment the running of Thomas, who rushed for 234 yards last week against UCLA and has been touted as a Doak Walker Award candidate.

Coffman, who threw for only 66 yards a week ago, was 18 of 26 for 280 yards before sitting out the fourth quarter. With the undersized Bears (1-1) geared to stop the run, Coffman connected on scoring throws of 42 and 7 yards to Brodrick Smith, and 23 yards to Aubrey Quarles.

Missouri State is 1-24 all-time against FBS opponents.

Kansas State had 108 yards rushing in the opening half, with 45 of those coming on a touchdown run by Thomas with 11:50 left in the first quarter.

The Wildcats went to their bag of tricks to take a 13-0 lead with 9:45 left in the second quarter. Kicker Anthony Cantele, who earlier missed a 26-yard field goal, lined up for a 20-yarder. But holder Ryan Doerr took the ball on an option to the right side and pitched to a trailing Cantele for a 3-yard touchdown.

Cantele missed the extra point to take away some of the luster, but the Wildcats quickly made it 20-0 a couple of minutes later when Coffman found Smith for the 42-yard touchdown pass.

Missouri State finally got its offense in gear with a 66-yard touchdown pass from Cody Kirby to Jermaine Safford with 1:22 left in the first half. But Kansas State answered with the 23-yard score from Coffman to Quarles for a 27-7 halftime lead.

The Wildcats had 493 yards of total offense in tuning up for their Big 12 opener against Iowa State next Saturday.

Wide receiver Brodrick Smith caught six passes for 99 yards and two scores, including a 42-yarder in the second quarter.

The Kansas State defense celebrates after Brandon Harold forced a recovered a fumble on a quarterback sack with 1:58 remaining in the fourth quarter. The Cats kicked a field goal and then held Iowa State on their last possession to seal the win.

KANSAS CITY, Mo. - Daniel Thomas rushed for 181 yards and two touchdowns on a career-high 34 carries, and Kansas State rallied to beat Iowa State 27-20 on Saturday.

Carson Coffman added 104 passing yards for the Wildcats (3-0, 1-0 Big 12), who have won back-to-back conference openers for the first time in 10 years.

Austen Arnaud threw for 122 yards and a touchdown to lead Iowa State (1-2, 0-1), which lost its third straight to Kansas State.

Thomas's 2-yard TD run gave Kansas State a 24-20 lead with 6:47 left. Brandon Harold then sacked Arnaud with 1:58 left and recovered a fumble, setting up a 42-yard field goal by Josh Cherry 20 seconds later.

Down three early in the fourth quarter, Kansas State jumped back ahead 24-20 with an 83-yard touchdown drive. Thomas capped it with five straight carries, including the touchdown run off a pitch from Coffman, after Brodrick Smith came back to the ball for a crucial 47-yard catch.

Iowa State rolled the dice, converting a fourth-and-1 from their own 17 with 4:57 left and on fourth-and-1 from their own 28 a few plays later. But Arnaud never saw Harold coming, and Harold scooped up the ball at Iowa State's 25-yard line.

Thomas opened the second half with a 23-yard run, and it looked like the Wildcats were finally poised to take over a game they had controlled to that point.

Thomas had a spectacular 1-yard touchdown plunge midway through the third quarter, putting the Wildcats back ahead 17-14.

Grant Mahoney's field goal tied the game at 17 late in the third quarter, and he put Iowa State ahead 20-17 with 11:26 to go.

The Wildcats ran it 28 times for 163 yards against Iowa State's rush defense in the first half and rushed 50 times for 262 yards for the game.

Daniel Thomas scored his second touchdown of the game, a two-yard scamper in the fourth to give K-State a 24-20 lead.

Kansas State quarterback Carson Coffman engineered a 13-play, 67-yard drive, which was capped by his own seven-yard touchdown run with 24 seconds remaining in the contest. K-State scored 14 fourth-quarter points after trailing 7-3 through three quarters.

MANHATTAN, Kan. - Carson Coffman's 7-yard touchdown run with 24 seconds left lifted Kansas State to a come-from-behind 17-13 victory Saturday over Central Florida, giving the Wildcats a 4-0 start for the first time since 2003.

Delayed by weather for almost 1 1/2 hours in the first quarter, the game was dominated by Central Florida (2-2) for much of the day. But the Knights failed to make good on several touchdown opportunities, and Kansas State took its first lead of the day when Coffman engineered a 13-play, 67-yard scoring march on the Wildcats' final possession.

Daniel Thomas, who came in as the nation's second-leading rusher, totaled only 76 yards on 22 carries but had a key 12-yard gain during the game-winning drive.

Nick Cattoi, who missed two field goals, connected from 27 yards for a 13-10 Central Florida lead with 5:14 to play, and Kansas State took over on its own 33.

Coffman, on third-and-10, connected with Andre McDonald for 18 yards to keep the drive going. Thomas picked up 12 yards to the 22, and Coffman connected on another third-down pass to set up a first-and-goal from the 10. Two plays later, Coffman kept the ball and darted through a big hole.

Ronnie Weaver ran for 130 yards for Central Florida and freshman quarterback Jeff Godfrey added 99 yards, often on quarterback keepers in which he took advantage of the slower Kansas State defense.

With less than 3 minutes gone in the first quarter, officials halted play because of lightning accompanying a heavy storm bearing down on the area. Dark, boiling, ominous-looking clouds rarely seen on the Great Plains seemed to envelop the stadium before heavy rains pelted the area and caused a delay of 1 hour, 26 minutes.

In the second quarter, Godfrey went up the middle for 10 yards on a keeper. He then sped 20 yards around left end and possibly would have scored if Ty Zimmerman's ankle tackle hadn't brought him down on the 25.

A 4-yard loss and a 5-yard penalty pushed the Knights back and Cattoi missed a 42-yard field goal attempt.

Late in the third quarter, Weaver broke a 31-yard run to the 9. But Stephen Harrison broke up Godfrey's pass in the end zone, and Cattoi missed from 23 yards.

Both of Kansas State's first two scores came off big pass plays to wide-open receivers. Tramaine Thompson got open for a 73-yard catch-and-run, leading to Josh Cherry's 27-yard field goal. Then the Wildcats tied it 10-10 when Coffman found Aubrey Quarles all alone on the sideline for a 58-yard touchdown play.

Kansas State wide receiver Chris Harper hauled in his first career touchdown against Nebraska, a 2-yard pass from Carson Coffman in the fourth quarter.

MANHATTAN, Kan. - Nebraska quarterback Taylor Martinez rushed for 242 yards and four touchdowns Thursday night and the seventh-ranked Cornhuskers ended a 99-year rivalry with Kansas State with a 48-13 win.

Martinez, the redshirt freshman who has rushed for 737 yards in his first five games for the Huskers (5-0), also threw a 79-yard touchdown pass to Kyler Reed for a 38-6 lead in the third quarter. His rushing total broke Jammal Lord's Nebraska record for a quarterback and his four rushing TDs tied the team quarterback mark. He was replaced by Cody Green with almost 10 minutes left in the game.

Martinez finished 5-of-7 for 128 yards as the Huskers piled up 587 yards total offense in the Big 12 opener for both teams.

Daniel Thomas. a senior running back who was averaging 157 yards a game for the Wildcats (4-1), was held to 63 yards on 22 carries.

Kansas State did not have nearly enough quickness to keep up with Martinez and the Huskers. Roy Helu broke loose for a 68-yard TD run in a 21-point third quarter that made a rout of what could be the last game these two schools ever play. In a rousing start to their farewell Big 12 tour, the Huskers' shortest touchdown play was 14 yards.

Headed next year to the Big Ten, they said goodbye to Kansas State with a six-game winning streak that raised their overall record against the Wildcats to 78-15-2, a series they began in 1911 with a 59-0 blowout and dominated almost start-to-finish.

But the Huskers had too much speed and too much Martinez. Their scoring drives in the third quarter covered 80 yards in three plays, 68 in one and 80 in two.

Kansas State's only TD came on a 2-yard pass on fourth down from Carson Coffman to Chris Harper late in the fourth quarter. Brodrick Smith, Kansas State's sophomore wide receiver, hurt his left leg on the third-down play and was taken off the field on a cart as play was stopped for several minutes.

Martinez got the Huskers rolling with a 14-yard TD run in the first quarter. In the second, he went around right end, the linebacker bit on the fake to the running back, and Martinez went 35 yards to the end zone. He made it 24-3 58 seconds into the third quarter when he burst up the middle through a big hole and raced 80 yards untouched.

Helu's 68-yard run made it two touchdowns in four plays for the Huskers.

Place kicker Josh Cherry celebrates after nailing a career-long 48-yard field goal in the third quarter.

Kansas State quarterback Carson Coffman rushed for three touchdowns and passed for two more against Kansas. It was the most rushing TDs by a quarterback since 2008, while Coffman's 231.6 quarterback efficiency rating was the highest in a game since 2005.

LAWRENCE, Kan. - Carson Coffman ran for three touchdowns and threw for two more, completing 15 of 16 passes and leading Kansas State past Kansas 59-7 on Thursday night in one of the most lopsided routs in an emotional rivalry that dates to 1902.

Coffman hit eight different receivers with passes. He also rushed for 91 yards and three TDs on 18 carries.

After a dull first quarter ended 3-0, Kansas State (5-1, 2-1 Big 12) scored on seven straight possessions - six of its own and one by the Jayhawks, on Stephen Harrison's 85-yard fumble return.

Kansas (2-4, 0-2 Big 12) did not stop the Wildcats until coach Bill Snyder started putting in his reserves with a 52-0 lead early in the fourth quarter. By then, Kansas' worst loss since a 66-14 shellacking by No. 2 Texas in 2005 was assured.

Snyder, who had not won a road game since ending a three-year retirement in 2009, raised his personal record against the Wildcats' archrival to 15-4. He has won 14 of his last 15 against the Jayhawks.

Daniel Thomas, who had been held under 80 yards each of the last two games, gained 91 yards on 18 carries, including a 9-yard touchdown run.

Until the final minutes, the Jayhawks had only one scoring threat, driving to a first-and-goal from the 10 in the third. But Harrison leaped in front of a receiver and intercepted the pass in the end zone.

On the very next play, William Powell broke through a huge hole and sped 56 yards to the 24. Coffman capped the six-play drive with a 2-yard run for a 52-0 lead.

Taking advantage of every Kansas mistake, the Wildcats put the game away with a 28-point second quarter and led 31-0 at halftime.

Tramaine Thompson caught Coffman's pass in the right flat, juked a would-be tackler and raced 35 yards to the 28. A few minutes later on fourth-and-1, Coffman went over the right side for an 8-yard TD run on the first play of the second quarter.

On Kansas' next play from scrimmage, Prizell Brown knocked the ball out of DeShaun Sands' hands and Ty Zimmerman recovered for Kansas State and ran 24 yards to the Jayhawks 25. Coffman ripped off gains of 10 yards on consecutive carries and dived over the top for a 1-yard TD run with 12:25 left in the half.

David Garrett sacked Webb on fourth-and-2 on KU's next possession and the Cats went 58 yards in four plays, keyed by Coffman's 35-yard pass to Chris Harper. Thomas scored on a 9-yard run.

Harrison picked up James Sims' fumble a few minutes later and dashed 85 yards untouched. Coffman's 2-yard run made it 52-0 with 1:23 left in the third.

Defensive back Stephen Harrison picked up a fumble and raced 85 yards for his first career touchdown.

Running back Daniel Thomas rushed 22 times for 113 yards and a pair of touchdowns against Baylor. With his efforts, he moved into fourth in 100-yard rushing games, ninth in school history in career touchdowns (20) and 10th in career rushes.

WACO, Texas - Jay Finley rushed for a school-record 250 yards, Robert Griffin threw for a career-high 404 yards and four touchdowns and Baylor became bowl eligible for the first time since joining the Big 12, beating Kansas State 47-42.

Baylor (6-2, 3-1) has not played in a bowl game since 1994, back when the Bears were a member of the now defunct Southwest Conference.

Griffin was 26 of 38 passing and Finley averaged 9.6 yards per carry to key an offense which gained 683 yards, breaking a school record that was set three weeks ago.

One week after thumping rival Kansas 59-7, the Wildcats (5-2, 2-2) missed out on becoming bowl eligible.

Josh Gordon and Kendall Wright each had two receiving touchdowns as the Bears scored on eight of their first 10 possessions.

William Powell returned a kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown and Daniel Thomas rushed for 113 yards and two scores for the Wildcats. Powell's kickoff return brought the Wildcats within 34-28.

Kansas State caught a break when Finley fumbled just before getting to the end zone on an 82-yard run. Finley was originally ruled down, but Kansas State got the ball after the call was reversed.

The Wildcats didn't score on their next two drives and the Bears were able to pull away.

Finley powered in for a 2-yard touchdown run, his second of the game, and Griffin threw a 30-yard touchdown pass to Wright to extend Baylor's lead to 47-28 early in the fourth.

Quarterback Carson Coffman's 1-yard touchdown run made it 47-42 with 7 seconds left. Baylor recovered an onside kick and took a knee on the final snap to clinch things.

The game was delayed 1 hour, 47 minutes because of a thunderstorm. Four plays into the game, lightning was spotted in the area and players and coaches were sent back to their locker rooms.

When play resumed, Baylor's big-play offense went to work as it piled up 387 yards in the first half.

Griffin, who tossed a 52-yard touchdown pass to Wright earlier in the second quarter, hooked up with Gordon on a 47-yard scoring pass that gave Baylor the lead for good at 28-21 with 4:17 left in the first half.

Griffin has thrown for 10 touchdowns of 40 yards or longer this season, including six of more than 50.

Quarterback Carson Coffman tied his career high in completions with 20 and has rushed for five TD in the past two games.

Wide receiver Aubrey Quarles hauled in eight receptions for 54 yards. He was one reception shy of tying his career mark, while he was one of six player to record a catch against the Cowboys.

MANHATTAN, Kan. - Kansas State will be forced to continue its search for the elusive sixth win next week, as Brandon Weeden threw two touchdown passes and No. 20 Oklahoma State's high-powered offense overcame a solid K-State defensive effort to beat Kansas State 24-14 Saturday afternoon.

An offensive attack that came into the game No. 3 nationally in total offense and No. 2 in scoring sputtered much of the day, particularly in a 7-7 first half. But aided by Dan Bailey's precise placement punting and Johnny Thomas' touchdown on an interception return, the Cowboys scored 17 straight points in the second half.

Daniel Thomas' 1-yard touchdown run shaved the lead to 24-14 with a little more than 4 minutes left, and Kansas State recovered the ensuing short kick. But an offsides penalty forced Kansas State to kick it again and OSU carefully gathered in the ball.

Weeden, No. 2 in the nation in yards passing per game, was 22 for 39 for 298 yards and the two scores. He hit Michael Harrison with a 15-yard TD strike in the second quarter and connected with Josh Cooper for 16 yards in the third. Kendall Hunter rushed for 143 yards on 28 carries for the Cowboys, who were coming off a 48-13 loss to Nebraska.

About as valuable as anyone for Oklahoma State was punter Quinn Sharp. With near-perfect trajectory and help from his coverage team, Quinn forced the Cats to start drives on their own 4, 8, 7 and 1.

After starting from the 1 midway through the fourth quarter, Kansas State struggled to a first down on the 14. But Thomas stepped up to pick off Carson Coffman's pass and snaked his way 26 yards into the end zone, making it 24-7 with 7:06 to play.

Weeden was 5 for 6 for 56 yards on an 11-play, 80-yard drive to go up 14-7 right after Kansas State squandered a great scoring opportunity. In the span of five plays, Oklahoma State was called for roughing the passer, a personal foul and having 12 men on the field. But given a first down on the 11, the Wildcats wound up missing a 24-yard field goal attempt by Josh Cherry, who had been 6 for 6. The Cowboys responded to take the lead on Weeden's pass to Harrison. Isaiah Anderson had a 40-yard reception during the drive.

Joseph Randle caught a 28-yard pass from Weeden to fuel a 10-play drive on Oklahoma State's next possession, capped by a 34-yard field goal by Dan Bailey, who is 16 for 16 and perfect on 44 extra-point attempts.

Thomas rushed for 101 yards for Kansas State, which took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on William Powell's 8-yard run following Hunter's fumble.

It was the fourth sellout in five games at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

Daniel Thomas recorded his second straight 100-yard game against Oklahoma State.

Quarterback Collin Klein rushed for 127 and two touchdowns against Texas. Klein only attempted four passes in the game, completing two for nine yards. It was Klein's first career start, leading K-State to bowl-eligibility for the first time since 2006.

MANHATTAN, Kan. - Collin Klein and Daniel Thomas ran for two touchdowns apiece and Kansas State intercepted Garrett Gilbert five times en route to a 39-14 victory Saturday night over Texas.

Thomas ran 34 yards for a touchdown on the second play from scrimmage, and things went downhill from there for the Longhorns (4-5, 2-4 Big 12), who are guaranteed their worst record in Mack Brown's 14 years as coach. The victory made Kansas State (6-3, 3-3) bowl eligible for the first time since 2006.

The win was also K-State's third straight against the Longhorns as the Wildcats have now scored 125 points in those three wins.

Klein, a surprise starter at quarterback over Carson Coffman, rushed for 127 yards and scored on runs of 12 and 10 yards.

Gilbert put more passes in Kansas State hands than did Klein, who was 2 for 4 for 9 yards. Klein's only completions were short tosses to Thomas, who went over the 1,000-yard rushing mark with 106 yards on 18 carries.

Gilbert was 32 for 59 for 272 yards and one touchdown. His interceptions led to 17 Kansas State points.

Another Kansas State touchdown drive was kept alive by two personal foul penalties against the Longhorns.

Stephen Harrison's interception of a tipped ball set up Josh Cherry's 30-yard field goal. Klein's 10-yard TD run followed Tysyn Hartman's first interception. Hartman's second interception led to Thomas' 9-yard scoring run.

Gilbert's 31-yard run in the fourth quarter set up Cody Johnson's 4-yard TD run, and with 31 seconds remaining, Gilbert tossed a 1-yard scoring pass to Dominique Jones.

Even when Texas did something right, it backfired. After William Powell made it 37-0 with an 8-yard run late in the third, Cherry's extra-point attempt was blocked. So Cherry simply picked up the ball, went to his left and carried it in for a 2-point conversion.

At one point, Gilbert threw interceptions on three straight passes. With only seconds to go in the first half, Ty Zimmerman stepped in front of the receiver in the end zone and may have scored if Gilbert hadn't brought him down on the Kansas State 41.

Hartman then intercepted Garrett's first pass of the second half, returning it 34 yards to set up Thomas' 9-yard run.

Next, it was Zimmerman's turn again. He scooped in Garrett's underthrown ball on his next throw.

Wide receiver Aubrey Quarles brought in nine receptions for a career high 133 yards, including a 26-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter. His nine recepitons tied his career high for a second time this season.

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Blaine Gabbert accounted for three touchdown in a strong bounce-back effort and No. 20 Missouri made just as many big plays on defense in a 38-28 victory over Kansas State.

The Tigers capitalized on three fumble recoveries, two of them huge swing plays, and scored 17 straight points to put away the Wildcats.

Kansas State had four turnovers, one of them wasting an opportunity to tie it in the final minute of the half when quarterback Carson Coffman fumbled the center snap at the Missouri 1. Jacquies Smith's fumble recovery preserved Missouri's 21-14 lead and the defensive end scored on a 53-yard fumble return in the third quarter after Aldon Smith leveled Coffman with a sack.

T.J. Moe caught two touchdown passes from Gabbert, who was 17 of 25 for 208 yards with an interception while running for a season-best 89 yards on 14 carries.

Gabbert opened with seven straight completions, including a 25-yard scoring pass to Moe.

Coffman started for Kansas State, but the Wildcats had a lot more success with backup Collin Klein, who had 141 yards rushing on 18 carries.

Klein's running set up two short touchdown runs by Daniel Thomas in the first half.

Missouri led 38-14 before Kansas State scored a pair of late touchdowns on Klein's 35-yard pass to Adrian Hilburn and Coffman's 26-yard throw to Aubrey Quarles.

Gabbert had a big first half, going 11 of 13 for 98 yards and a touchdown and rushing for 70 yards on seven carries, including a 32-yard score.

Wide receiver Wes Kemp had a big peelback block on Gabbert's scoring scramble, leveling Terrance Sweeney. Kemp was among three wide receivers who got carries in the first half, and Jerrell Jackson's 9-yard run made it 14-12 with 4:12 to go in the half.

Thomas, who had 66 yards on 12 carries, scored two touchdowns for the second straight game.

AP

Collin Klein rushed for 141 yards vs. the Tigers, bring his two-game total to 268, the most by a Wildcat QB in school history.

True freshman defensive back Ty Zimmerman returned a punt 41 yards early in the game to set up K-State's first touchdown. It was the longest punt return by the Wildcats since 2008, while Zimmerman also pitched in nine tackles, including one for a loss.

BOULDER, Colo. - Rodney Stewart ran for a touchdown and gained a career-high 195 yards on 34 carries, caught two passes for 49 yards and completed a 23-yard halfback pass for a touchdown in leading Colorado past Kansas State 44-36.

Cody Hawkins threw for three TDs and 202 yards and the Buffaloes won their second straight under interim coach Brian Cabral, who took over two weeks ago when Dan Hawkins was fired.

Kansas State lost starting quarterback Collin Klein late in the second quarter and couldn't quite keep up with Stewart. Klein suffered an unspecified injury when he was sacked by defensive end Josh Hartigan and was replaced by Carson Coffman, who threw for 270 yards and two touchdowns.

Ty Zimmerman returned the short punt 41 yards to the Colorado 1, and Klein ran it in from there on the first snap. Klein scored on another 1-yard keeper to make it 14-3 the second time the Wildcats had the ball. But Will Jefferson returned the kickoff to midfield and Stewart leaped in from a yard out to start Colorado's comeback.

Daniel Thomas coughed up the ball and Colorado cornerback Jimmy Smith returned it 22 yards to the Kansas State 24, and Stewart took the pitch and hit Toney Clemons in the back of the end zone from 23 yards out with his first collegiate pass to put the Buffaloes ahead for good at 16-14.

It was Colorado's first halfback touchdown pass since 1993 and Stewart's first toss since Pop Warner.

McKnight, a senior, scored on a 37-yard catch and run, giving the Buffs a 23-14 halftime lead. It was his school record 21st TD. He caught another from 13 yards out to make it 30-14 after a roughing penalty negated Kansas State defensive back Thomas Ferguson's interception at the Colorado 20.

Coffman scored on a 6-yard keeper and Thomas' jump-pass to Andre McDonald pulled Kansas State to 30-22. Stewart responded with a 51-yard touchdown run, but Kansas State stayed in it as Coffman connected with Aubrey Quarles from 16 yards out on fourth-and-goal to make it 37-29.

After Colorado scored on Cody Hawkins' 3-yard touchdown toss to Paul Richardson, the Wildcats got into the end zone on fourth down again, this time with Coffman hitting Chris Harper from 23 yards out to make it 44-36.

Wide receiver Chris Harper caught four passes for Wildcat career high 74 yards and one touchdown.

Senior running back Daniel Thomas rushed for 269 yards and two touchdown on 36 carries against North Texas. His 269 yards were the third most in a single game in school history.

DENTON, Texas - Daniel Thomas rushed for a career-high 269 yards and Kansas State closed the college home of "Mean" Joe Greene by rallying for a 49-41 victory against North Texas.

The Wildcats fell behind 20-7 in the first half after Lance Dunbar rushed for 161 yards and two long touchdowns in the first quarter alone.

Dunbar finished with 266 yards and three touchdowns for the Mean Green, who are leaving 58-year-old Fouts Field and moving across Interstate 35 into a new $78 million stadium next year.

Kansas State finally went ahead 21-20 on a Carson Coffman touchdown pass with 5 seconds left in the first half. The Wildcats scored twice early in the third quarter to build a cushion that withstood a wild second half.

The half-full stadium had at least as much Wildcat purple as Mean Green, but the Kansas State fans didn't have much to cheer for most of the first half.

Running through huge holes, Dunbar had a 52-yard scoring run on the fourth play of the game and went 62 yards for a 20-7 lead with 3:33 left in the first quarter.

Backup quarterback Collin Klein came off the bench in the third quarter for a 6-yard scoring run and a nifty pitch to Braden Wilson for a 1-yard TD. Thomas took several direct snaps for runs that helped set up both scores.

Dunbar went 36 yards to finish a 79-yard touchdown drive that pulled the Mean Green within 35-27, but Thomas answered with his second touchdown, a 3-yard run that capped a 56-yard march.

The teams traded 90-plus-yard kickoff returns that left Kansas State in front 49-34 early in the fourth quarter before North Texas drove another 77 yards to pull within 49-41. Dunbar scored from 17 yards on a fourth-down shovel pass from backup Chase Baine.

Both defenses stiffened late in the fourth quarter, but not before the teams combined for 909 yards.

The final play at Fouts Field was a Hail Mary toss from Baine that traveled 60 yards before Kansas State intercepted it in the end zone.

True freshman defensive back Ty Zimmerman intercepted a pass on the final play ever at 58-year old Fouts Field.

Following a 33-10 victory over Colorado on November 20, 1982, Kansas State head coach Jim Dickey and the Wildcats celebrate their first ever bowl invitation as the Independence Bowl was on hand to invite the Cats to Shreveport, La.

SHREVEPORT, La. - Wisconsin quarterback Randy Wright tossed two touchdown passes as the Badgers overcame an early Kansas State lead for a hard-earned 14-3 victory over the Wildcats in the seventh annual Independence Bowl.

The game, played in cold and wet conditions before an announced crowd of 49,523, marked the first-ever Bowl appearance by Kansas State. A 23 mile-per-hour wind dropped temperatures to 10 below zero and kept many fans away.

After a scoreless first quarter, K-State took the game's first lead with 7:10 left in the second period when Steve Willis booted a 29-yard field goal after defensive end Bob Daniels recovered a fumble at the Badger 18-yard line.

The Wildcats' lead was short-lived, however. On Wisconsin's ensuing drive following the field goal, the Badgers marched 79 yards in eight plays, scoring a touchdown on a 16-yard pass from Wright to Michael Jones to give UW a 7-3 halftime lead.

Wisconsin struck again midway through the third quarter, when game offensive MVP Wright connected with Tim Stracka on an 87-yard touchdown pass for a 14-3 Badger advantage.

K-State drove deep into Wisconsin territory on its next two possessions, but was unable to score.

One opportunity ended when a Wildcat pass was intercepted in the Badger end zone, while a second was stymied at the Wisconsin 26-yard line, when K-State could not convert on fourth down.

Darrell Ray Dickey completed 13 of 35 passes for 127 yards and one interception on the game for 1982 Big Eight Coach of the Year Jim Dickey's Wildcat squad.

The 35 pass attempts stood as a Kansas State bowl record until 2004, when Ell Roberson's 51 attempts in the 2004 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl vs. Ohio State.

Darrell Ray Dickey set the then-school mark for pass attempts in the 1982 Independence Bowl with 35 against Wisconsin.

TUCSON, Ariz. - It's probable that not even Bill Snyder could have scripted the events of Dec. 29, 1993, any better as K-State put the finishing touches on one of its finest football seasons in school history with a breathtaking 52-17 total domination of Wyoming.

Wyoming took a quick 3-0 lead on a 35-yard field goal, but the rest, as they say, is history. K-State put its high-powered offense into overdrive and scored on its first three possessions. J.J. Smith put K-State on the board with a two-yard TD run as the Wildcats drove 68 yards in just six plays to take a 6-3 lead. Tate Wright added a 22-yard field goal, and on its third possession, K-State drove 76 yards in only eight plays to take a 16-3 lead on Chad May's two-yard TD plunge.

With 1:07 left in the first half, Wyoming punted deep in its own territory. All-American Andre Coleman fielded the ball at his own 32, sidestepped two defenders and then raced untouched down the far sideline for a touchdown to put K-State ahead 24-10 at the half.

Coleman and company began the second half right where they left off and quickly broke the Cowboys' spirit with a 61-yard touchdown catch just 54 seconds into the third quarter.

Freshman All-American Kevin Lockett then put K-State ahead 38-10 midway through the third quarter with a 30-yard touchdown reception. Reserve running back Leon Edwards later added a 13-yard touchdown run, and cornerback Kenny McEntyre provided the game's crowning moment with a 37-yard interception return for a touchdown with just over six minutes left in the game.

The final numbers were staggering, as the Kansas State offense rolled up 502 yards and averaging 7.5 yards per play.

Tyson Schwieger and the K-State offense rolled up 502 yards in the Wildcats' 52-17 Copper Bowl victory over Wyoming.

Wide receiver Kevin Lockett pulled in five receptions for 99 yards against Boston College in the Aloha Bowl. It was K-State's second ever game away from the Continential United States.

HONOLULU, Hawaii - Kansas State played Boston College to a defensive standoff much of the afternoon at Aloha Stadium, but the Wildcat offense never got on track and fell 12-7 in the 1994 Aloha Bowl.

The Eagles sacked K-State quarterback Chad May eight times, including a four-hit effort by end Mike Mamula, who was named the game's most valuable player.

Couple that with a ground game that gained just 30 yards and K-State netted just 124 altogether in finishing 9-3.

The Eagles couldn't distance themselves from the Wildcats despite a 51-yard bolt by David Green on the game's second play. That carry led to an early 7-0 cushion for the Eagles but would be the only touchdown of the day.

K-State's lone score came with eight seconds left in the first quarter when Joe Gordon crashed the middle of BC's line and blocked a punt by Jeff Beckley. Chris Sublette recovered the ball on the first hop in the end zone and the game was tied, 7-7.

However, BC would answer with its own end zone patrol later in the half when Mamula applied the biggest of his hits on May for a safety with 2:37 left.

The Wildcats reached the BC 19 on their ensuing drive, but Eric Shorter intercepted a dropped pass in the flat on third-and-15 with 19 seconds left in the half.

Still, a defense that featured punter Eric Hardy, Gordon and a pair of 10-tackle performances from Chuck Marlowe and Mario Smith kept the Wildcats within striking distance until the end.

BC could only tack on a 35-yard field goal by David Gordon with 1:18 remaining in the second half.

Joe Gordon was chosen as K-State's MVP in the Aloha Bowl after he blocked a punt leading to the Wildcats' only score.

A 2005 inductee into the Holiday Bowl Hall of Fame, quarterback Brian Kavanagh was the game's Offensive MVP in 1995. Kavanagh came off the bench to go 18-of-24 through the air for 242 yards and four touchdowns.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - For the second time in three years, Kansas State ran roughshod over the Western Athletic Conference's best as the Wildcats outran, outplayed and outscored Colorado State for a 54-21 win in front of more than 51,000 fans at the 1995 Plymouth Holiday Bowl at Jack Murphy Stadium.

K-State began the scoring on an Eric Hickson 4-yard run with 11:21 left in the first quarter. After CSU responded with a touchdown to knot the score at 7-7, it was all Kansas State.

The Wildcats outscored the Rams, 19-0, in the second quarter by virtue of an interception return by safety Mario Smith and a blocked punt. Brian Kavanagh, who would earn the game's Offensive MVP award, came in for the injured Matt Miller in the second quarter and immediately put the ball in the end zone.

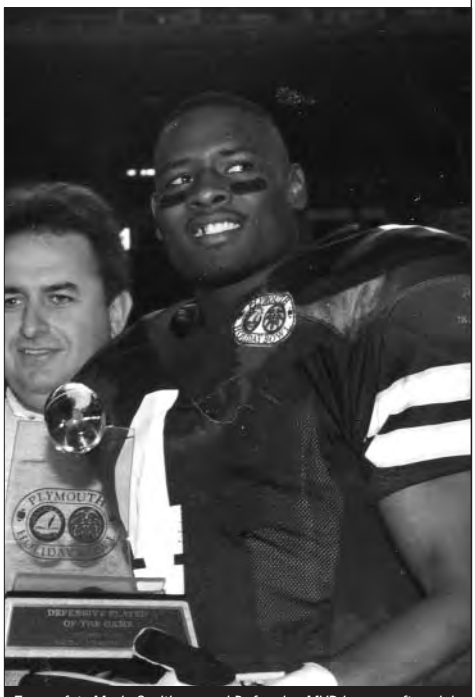
Kavanagh completed 18-of-24 passes for 242 yards and a Holiday Bowl-record tying four touchdowns. The junior signal-caller tossed scoring strikes to Brian Lojka, Tyson Schwieger, Kevin Lockett and Mitch Running.

Including Miller's statistics before he was hurt, the Wildcat quarterbacks combined to complete 24 of 32 passes for 324 yards and four touchdowns.

On the defensive side of the ball, Smith earned MVP honors by picking off two passes, registering two passes broken up, making four tackles and generally creating havoc among the Ram receivers.

The nation's top-ranked defense held the potent CSU offense to 301 yards, while forcing four turnovers.

Individually, Hickson ran for 103 yards and a touchdown on 20 carries, while catching six passes. Running caught six passes for 126 yards and a TD. Freshman punter James Garcia averaged 45.0 yards on three punts.



Free safety Mario Smith earned Defensive MVP honors after picking off two passes, breaking up two more and making four stops.

The 1997 Cotton Bowl was Kansas State's first ever New Year's Day bowl game. An estimated 45,000 Wildcat fans descended on Dallas to watch K-State in the historic bowl setting.

DALLAS, Texas - An estimated 45,000 Kansas State fans descended on Dallas to watch the Wildcats in their first-ever New Year's Day Bowl and were witness to one of the most exciting games of the bowl season.

After taking a 15-5 lead following a 72-yard touchdown pass from Brian Kavanagh to Kevin Lockett, the Wildcats saw why BYU quarterback Steve Sarkisian was considered one of the nation's best. The Cougar QB tossed two fourth-quarter touchdowns to lead No. 5 BYU to a 19-15 Cotton Bowl victory.

Following Sarkisian's 28-yard scoring strike to Kealaluhi with 3:39 remaining in the game, Kavanagh and Lockett led the Wildcats to a first down at the BYU 12-yard line with around one minute remaining. But, Kavanagh's pass to Jimmy Dean was picked off at the 3-yard line by Omarr Morgan to preserve BYU's 14th win.

The game's first score came when Cotton Bowl Defensive MVP Shay Muirbrook tackled Kavanagh in the end zone for a safety in the first quarter. After the free kick, BYU scored again on an Ethan Pochman 39-yard field goal.

K-State had a hard time getting on track until the final play of the first half. Kavanagh heaved a Hail Mary into the end zone, where, after the ball was deflected by a BYU defender, K-State junior Andre Anderson scooped the ball in for a touchdown. Following the PAT that gave K-State a 7-5 lead, a penalty on BYU forced the teams to return from the locker room so that the Wildcats could try for two points. Mike Lawrence made it pay off by scoring to give KSU an 8-5 lead heading into halftime.

K-State scored its second touchdown of the game when Kevin Lockett bounced off tacklers following a reception on a short slant pattern and raced 72 yards down the left sideline.

BYU's Steve Sarkisian, now the head coach at Washington, tossed two fourth-quarter touchdowns to rally the Cougars.

Michael Bishop was named Offensive MVP of the Fiesta Bowl after collecting 390 yards of total offense and four touchdowns. His four passing scores tied the Fiesta Bowl record, two of which went to Darnell McDonald, who broke a school record with 206 receiving yards.

TEMPE, Ariz. - Kansas State capped its best season in school history with a 35-18 win over 14th-ranked Syracuse, the Big East champion.

Wildcat quarterback Michael Bishop stole the show by throwing for four touchdowns and completing a career-high 14 passes for a career-best 317 yards.

Darnell McDonald was on the receiving end of seven Bishop passes and turned them into a school-record 206 yards in receptions and three touchdowns. His 77-yard reception in the fourth quarter was the longest in Fiesta Bowl history.

After allowing Syracuse to jump out to a 3-0 lead on the first of Nate Trout's three field goals, Bishop led the Wildcats to three consecutive touchdowns in the second quarter. The first came following a failed fake field goal attempt by Syracuse, culminating in a 19-yard pass to McDonald. Bishop followed with a 12-yard TD dash on K-State's next possession, and wrapped up the first-half scoring with a 28-yard completion to Justin Swift on a tight end screen.

Syracuse scored 12 points in the final 2:18 to close within 21-15 at the half. Following a scoreless third quarter, Bishop and the Wildcats put away the Orangemen with two big plays in the fourth.

McDonald pulled in a long pass along the sidelines, fought off a Syracuse defender and completed a 77-yard TD play, then followed with a 41-yard reception with 3:17 remaining to salt the game away.

Bishop, who earned the Offensive Player of the Game award, finished the contest with 390 yards in total offense, including 317 yards passing and 73 yards rushing. Swift caught a career-high five passes for a career-high 98 yards and one touchdown, while Travis Ochs, was Named Defensive player of the Game.

Linebacker Travis Ochs was named the Defensive MVP after tallying seven tackles, an interception and a fumble recovery.

After setting a school record with 206 receiving yards in the 1997 Fiesta Bowl, Darnell McDonald came back to set an Alamo Bowl record with an 88-yard touchdown pass from Michael Bishop.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas - The unranked Purdue Boilermakers shocked the No. 4 Kansas State Wildcats, 37-34, in the sixth annual Builders Square Alamo Bowl.

More than 30,000 purple-clad fans cheered the Wildcats on in one of the most exciting bowl game finishes in school history.

After a scoreless first quarter, both offenses finally got untracked, exploding for 71 points over the final three periods.

Unfortunately for K-State, it was the Boilermakers who were the first to get things going, taking a 17-7 halftime lead courtesy of a pair of Drew Brees touchdown passes and a 25-yard Travis Dorsch field goal.

Fumble recoveries in the end zone by both squads and another Dorsch field goal, this time with just four seconds to go in the third quarter had Purdue sporting a 27-13 lead heading into the final stanza.

David Allen, who rushed for 83 yards on 13 carries, scored from three yards out to get things going before Michael Bishop found an open Darnell McDonald for an Alamo Bowl record 88-yard touchdown strike that pulled the Cats within a field goal at 30-27. Then, with just 1:24 left in the game, Bishop connected with tight end Justin Swift for a two-yard touchdown and a 34-30 K-State lead, its first and only of the game.

Brees then engineered a six-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a 24-yard score to Isaac Jones to put the Boilermakers back on top for good at 37-34 with 30 seconds remaining.

Pinned back on its own two-yard line, K-State saw its hopes dashed when Bishop was intercepted to end the game.

David Allen rushed for 83 yards on 13 carries to lead K-State, including a score from three yards out in the fourth quarter.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - Kansas State used a stiff defense and three rushing touchdowns by quarterback Jonathan Beasley to defeat Washington 24-20 in the 1999 Holiday Bowl.

Trailing 20-17 late in the third quarter, the Wildcats embarked on a 20-play, 92-yard drive that took 9 minutes, 54 seconds off the clock to score the eventual game-winning touchdown. The drive was set up after senior Lamar Chapman picked off Marques Tuiasosopo.

K-State took a 17-13 lead on its first possession of the second half, scoring on an 11-yard touchdown run by Beasley. The Huskies came back with a 73-yard touchdown drive when Maurice Shaw scored on a five-yard run. That score was the first against K-State in the third quarter during the entire season.

Beasley completed 15-of-31 passes for 216 yards to go with three rushing touchdowns to earn Offensive MVP honors, while Darren Howard was named Defensive MVP after totaling nine tackles and three sacks.

The first half was a back-and-forth affair that saw the Huskies take a 13-10 lead into the locker room.

Washington drew first blood when John Anderson booted a 39 yard field goal just 3:32 into the contests. K-State quickly responded as Beasley drove the Cats 47 yards on the ensuing possession, calling his own number from one yard out to cap the eight-play drive.

Anderson hit on his second of two first-half field goal attempts to pull Washington with in a point heading into the second quarter.

A Jamie Rheem field goal from 41 yards out pushed K-State's lead to 10-6, but the Huskies would put the half's final points on the board on a Pat Conniff three-yard touchdown run midway through the period.

Darren Howard was named Defensive MVP of the Holiday Bowl after collecting nine tackles and three sacks vs. Washington.

Kansas State picked up its first ever New Year's Day bowl victory in the first meeting between K-State and Tennessee. The Wildcats set bowl records for rushing yards, offensive plays, interceptions and time of possession, among others.

DALLAS, Texas - Jonathan Beasley threw two touchdowns and rushed for another in leading Kansas State to a 35-21 win over Tennessee in the 65th annual Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowl Classic. The victory gave the Wildcats back-to-back bowl wins for the first time in school history.

Beasley, who was named the game's Offensive MVP, had touchdown passes of 56 and 10 yards to Quincy Morgan to key a rally in the second quarter. The touchdown throws, which came three minutes apart, turned a 7-7 tie into a 21-7 Wildcat lead.

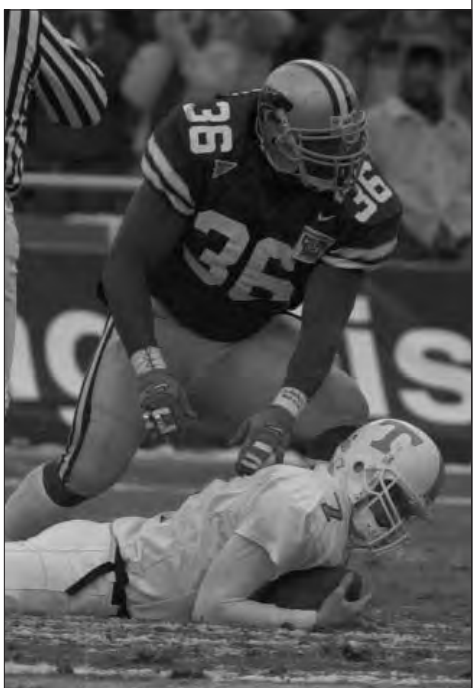
Tennessee pulled within seven points before halftime when Jabari Greer went 78 yards with an interception for a touchdown.

But Kansas State got two touchdown runs from Josh Scobey early in the third quarter to regain its cushion. Scobey finished with 147 yards on a career-high 28 carries in the game, the most yards gained in a bowl game by a Wildcat in school history.

Travis Henry 81-yard run late in the game was the final Volunteers' score. Henry finished as the game's leading rusher, gaining 180 yards on 17 carries.

Beasley finished with 210 yards passing on a 13-for-27 performance. He also rushed for a career-best 98 yards on 17 carries. The senior put the Wildcats on the scoreboard first with a 14-yard run late in the first quarter.

Senior defensive end Chris Johnson was the Defensive MVP after leading the Wildcats with four tackles, including two sacks of Tennessee QB Casey Clausen. The Wildcat defense held Clausen to just seven completions and forced three interceptions.



Chris Johnson was named the Defensive MVP of the Cotton Bowl after leading the Wildcats with four tackles and two sacks.

Kansas State's appearance in the Insight.com Bowl was its third trip to Arizona for a bowl game and its second time in the Copper/Insight.com Bowl. It also marked the school's first bowl game at a stadium mainly used for baseball.

PHOENIX, Ariz. - Syracuse running back James Mungro rushed for 112 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Orangemen to a victory over Kansas State in the 2001 Insight.com Bowl played at Bank One Ballpark.

Mungro scored on runs of 65, 1 and 1 yard to pace the Syracuse offense. The Orangemen added a late touchdown in the fourth quarter on a 52-yard pass from Robin Anderson to Johnnie Morant.

The Syracuse defense did a good job in stopping Kansas State's running offense, which came into the bowl game ranked fifth in the nation. Despite allowing 46 yards on 10 carries to senior Josh Scobey, the Orangemen held K-State to just 33 net rushing yards.

Junior Marc Dunn led the Wildcats with 151 yards passing in relief of starter Ell Roberson. Dunn completed 12 of 25 passes and suffered one interception. Roberson was 2-for-15 for 70 yards for the Wildcats, who were sacked five times by Syracuse.

Mungro opened the scoring on his 65-yard run midway through the first quarter.

Kansas State responded just two minutes later with a 29-yard field goal by freshman Joe Rheem. The drive was sparked by a 47-yard pass from Roberson to Aaron Lockett and a 27-yard carry by Scobey.

Syracuse took advantage of a fumble deep in Wildcat territory early in the second quarter. Mungro scored from the 1-yard line to convert the turnover, but the extra-point was blocked by Josh Buhl.

On the next play from scrimmage, Willie Ford got the first of his two interceptions to set up the Orangemen again. Two plays later, Mungro went over from the 1-yard line again, but Buhl also blocked the extra-point.

Kansas State's defense held Syracuse to 222 total yards of offense, including 113 yards passing, and eight first downs.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - Derrick Evans caught a 10-yard touchdown pass from Ell Roberson with 1:15 left in the game to lift Kansas State to its first and final lead of the contest, as the Wildcats defeated Arizona State, 34-27, in the Pacific Life Holiday Bowl.

Evans' catch completed a K-State comeback from deficits of 10-0, 20-7 and 27-20 against the Sun Devils. Roberson, voted the Offensive MVP of the game, rushed for 63 yards, including touchdowns of 32, 3 and 1 yards, and passed for 215 yards by completing 11 of 28 throws.

Roberson's 32-yard score came with just 54 seconds left in the second half and pulled the Wildcats within 20-14. Just 31 seconds earlier, Mike Barth converted on a 39-yard field goal to give ASU its largest lead of the game at 20-7.

K-State tied the game at 20-20 early in the fourth quarter when Roberson capped a 16-play, 65-yard drive with a 3-yard score.

Arizona State quarterback Andrew Walter, who threw for 293 yards on 28-for-57 passing, found Mike Williams for a 10-yard score to put the Sun Devils back ahead on the next possession.

But the Wildcats responded with an 80-yard drive on its next opportunity, setting up Roberson's 1-yard touchdown dive that tied the game again at 27-27 with 6:41 left.

The Wildcat defense forced a Sun Devil punt that Terence Newman returned 27 yards. From there, the Wildcats needed seven plays to cover 59 yards to set up the game-winning touchdown.

Arizona State converted two first downs on its final drive, but Rashad Washington batted down Walter's final pass to preserve the win.

K-State's appearance in the 2004 Fiesta Bowl was its first ever in a BCS Bowl. The game capped a 15-game season for K-State, its longest ever, and was the Wildcats' first post-New Year's Day bowl game.

TEMPE, Ariz. - Kansas State started slowly but finished with a fury in the 33rd Annual Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. But it wasn't enough to overcome a 21-point third-quarter deficit as the Wildcats lost a hard fought 35-28 decision to Ohio State in its first ever BCS bowl game at Sun Devil Stadium.

Trailing 35-14 heading into the fourth quarter, Ayo Saba scored from three yards out to cap an eight-play, 46-yard drive and closed the game to 14 points.

Ell Roberson's second rushing touchdown with just 2:47 to go pulled K-State within a touchdown, setting up a frantic finish.

After recovering the ensuing on-sides kick, the Wildcats were flagged for being offsides, forcing a re-kick. This time the Buckeyes recovered at the K-State 36-yard line.

But the Wildcats held and got the ball back with 1:12 to play at their own 10-yard.

A 21-yard completion to Davin Dennis, who finished with a career-high seven receptions for 113 yards, moved the ball to the K-State 26. On the next play Roberson connected with Jermaine Moreira for 26 yards to the Ohio State 48 to get Kansas State within striking distance.

However, Roberson's desperation pass from midfield was batted down at the 2, allowing Ohio State to escape with its second straight Fiesta Bowl victory.

Roberson completed 20 passes on a career-high 51 attempts for 294 yards. His 51 attempts were the most ever by a Wildcat in a bowl game, surpassing Darrell Dickey's 34 in the 1982 Independence Bowl.

Josh Buhl tied a K-State bowl game record with 13 total tackles, equaling Laird Veatch's total from the 1993 Copper Bowl and giving him a K-State single-season record of 184.

Ell Roberson set a K-State bowl record for passing attempts, hitting on 20-of-51 attempts for 294 yards and a pair of scores.

Wide receiver/punt returner Yamon Figurs scored K-State's only touchdown in the 2006 Texas Bowl on a 76-yard punt return. It was the longest punt return in K-State bowl history and the first since a blocked punt return in the 1994 Aloha Bowl.

HOUSTON, Texas - Kansas State hung with No. 16 Rutgers for 30 minutes, but the Scarlet Knights scored 20 unanswered points in the second half to hand the Wildcats a 37-10 loss in the inaugural Texas Bowl before 52,210 fans at Reliant Stadium.

Rutgers was as good as advertised and kept K-State off balance all night long.

Ray Rice, the Texas Bowl MVP, rushed for 170 yards and a touchdown and Tim Brown caught two TD passes, for the Scarlet Knights, who claimed their first bowl victory in 137 seasons of intercollegiate football.

Brown's two TD catches came in the opening period and staked Rutgers to a quick 14-0 lead.

K-State answered with a 44-yard field goal by Jeff Snodgrass - his 17th of the season - and a 76-yard punt return for a touchdown by Yamon Figurs that was the longest in K-State bowl history to close the gap to 14-10 midway through the second quarter.

But Jeremy Ito connected on a 37-yard field goal to close the half and linebacker Quintero Frierson returned an interception 27 yards for a touchdown on the first play from scrimmage of the second half to put Rutgers comfortably ahead 24-10.

Rice sprinted 46-yards for his lone touchdown of the game on the Scarlet Knights' next possession before Ito closed out the scoring with a pair of fourth-quarter field goals to provide the final margin.

The Scarlet Knights' seventh-ranked defense proved to be too much and held Kansas State at bay all game long. The Wildcats mustered just 162 yards of total offense for its second fewest yards in a bowl game.

On defense, senior linebacker Brandon Archer led all players with nine total tackles to finish his career with 268 stops for the 17th-most in school history.

Quarterback Josh Freeman finished the season with 1,780 passing yards in 2006, setting a K-State freshman record.
